

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette, Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana; Thursday, October 14, 1937

BRANDYBERRY

DECATUR, Oct 13, -- Dennis C. Brandyberry, 72, lifelong resident of Adams County, died at his home in Monroe this morning. Surviving are the widow and one son, Ezra, and the following brothers and sisters, Amos Brandyberry and Mrs. Ella Heffner, both of Monroe; Rev. Millard T. Brandyberry of Ontario, Cal. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Monroe Friends church. Burial in the Decatur cemetery.

~~~~~

Evening News Banner, Wells County, IN; Thursday, October 14, 1937

D. C. BRANDYBERRY DIES AT MONROE

Death Occurs Following Illness and Funeral To Be Held Friday

Dennis C. Brandyberry, 72, lifelong resident of Adams County died Wednesday at Monroe. Death was caused by complications.

The deceased was born in Monroe August 24, 1865, the son of Abraham and Louise Brandyberry. He was a member of the Monroe Friends Church.

Surviving besides the widow, Ella Whistler-Brandyberry, are a son, Ezra, and a granddaughter, Anna Brandyberry; the following brothers and sisters, Amos and Mrs. Ella Heffner of Monroe and the Rev. Millard T. Brandyberry of Ontario, Calif. Three sisters and two brothers are deceased.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Friends Church and burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. The Rev. Vernon Riley, assisted by the Rev. Grant Whieneck, will officiate.