

RONALD BROWN

Ronald K. "Runt" Brown, 55, rural Decatur, died suddenly on Saturday in Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne.

He was born on January 17, 1938 in Decatur to Herman and Eva Kreischer Brown.

He was a heavy equipment operator for Crosby Excavating of Fort Wayne and a member of Eagles Lodge 2653 in Decatur.

Surviving are two sons, Rodney K. Brown, Kalamazoo, Mich., and Anthony L. Brown, rural Decatur; two daughters, Bonnie L. McMellen, Fort Wayne and Mrs. Steve (Tina M.) Leavenworth, Vero Beach, Fla.; six brothers, Don Brown, Decatur, Dale Brown, Poe; Max Brown, Wren, Ohio; Larady Brown, Cridersville, Ohio; Raymond Brown, Monroeville, and Dan Brown, Urbanna, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. Floyd (Ilo) Meyer, Wren, Ohio; Mrs. Darrell (Iris) Hendricks, Huber Heights, Ohio; and Mrs. John (Connie) Martin, Kokomo and four grandchildren.

One brother, Marvin Brown, is deceased.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday in Zwick- Sefton & Jahn, Decatur, with Rev. Sylvester Brown officiating.

Visiting hours will be from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. Tuesday in the funeral home.

Preferred memorials are to the Brown family.

Decatur Daily Democrat

The name of a surviving brother was accidentally omitted in the Ronald K. Brown obituary, which appeared in Monday's edition. Glen Paul "Pete" Brown of Ohio City, Ohio also survives. The Democrat apologizes for the error.