

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Wednesday, April 21, 1976

Melvena Z. Brunner, 63, 1051 Line St., widow of Harvey Brunner, died at 8:40 a.m. Tuesday at the Adams County Memorial Hospital, following an extended illness.

She attended the Nazarene Church.

Born in Adams County on Jan. 20, 1913, she was the daughter of Albert M. and Elizabeth Logan-Sudduth, and was united in marriage on Nov. 25, 1930 to Harvey Brunner. Mr. Brunner died Oct. 1, 1971.

Survivors include three children, Mrs. Waldo (Betty) Salway, route 5, Decatur; Mrs. Charles (Sally) Golliff, Decatur; John P. Brunner, Decatur; one sister, Mrs. James (Margaret) Ritter, Decatur; three brothers, Sylvester Sudduth, Phoenix, Ariz.; Harvey Sudduth, South Milford; Walter Sudduth, St. Petersburg, Fla.; 13 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. One daughter, Mary Elizabeth, preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Friday at the Winteregg-Linn & Haggard Funeral Home, with Rev. Cloyce C. Cunningham officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. today.