

Mrs. Mary Butcher Dies At Hospital

Funeral Services Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Mary Alma Butcher, widow of the late Adam Clark Butcher, died yesterday afternoon at the Adams county Memorial hospital, following a week's illness from a fractured hip, and complications which developed during the past week.

Mrs. Butcher, who made her home with her step-daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Roop of Ninth street, fell a week ago today and fractured her hip. Her husband died last Dec. 9.

The deceased was born in Atlanta, Ga., on May 29, 1894. She was a member of the Eastern Star and the United Brethren church.

Surviving are the step-children, Mrs. Roop, Mrs. Frank Baker, Mrs. Hubert Gilpen, Louise and Robert Butcher, all of this city; Morris Butcher, of Wapakoneta, Ohio; Raymond Butcher of Denver, Col. Twenty grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Gillig and Doan funeral home and 2:30 p.m. at the United Brethren church, with the Rev. R. R. Wilson officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.

The body has been moved to the Gillig and Doan funeral home, where friends may call after 7 o'clock this evening.
