Floyd Butler Dies Suddenly

Former Decatur Resident Dies of Heart Attack Sunday Morning

Floyd Butler, 40, a barber in Chicago, and a former Decatur resident, died suddenly at his home in Chicago Sunday morning. Death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Butler had not been ill previous to the heart attack.

The deceased was born in Decatur on July 12, 1894, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Butler. He resided here for a number of years before going to Fort Wayne. He had lived in Chicago for the past 18 years where he engaged in barbering.

He was united in marriage to Mary Ann Teeple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.F. Teeple of this city, and two daughters were born to the union. His mother and wife preceded Mr. Butler in death. His second marriage took place two years ago. Survivors include the widow, Nilda Butler, his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Butler, Decatur; two daughters, Charlotte Butler and Mildred Blosser of Decatur; and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Ross Tyndall of Van Wert, Ohio; Mrs. J.R. Peterson of Terre Haute; Mrs. George W. Schug of Roanoke, Virginia; Ralph Butler of Columbus, Ohio; I.B. Butler and Arthur (Bill) Butler of this city.

The body will be brought to Decatur for funeral services, leaving Chicago at 10:30 o'clock tonight. Services will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Samuel Butler residence, 114 South Eighth street. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery.
