John B. Drummond Passed Away at Daughter's Home Friday Afternoon
Funeral on Sunday - Lived in Decatur Many Years
Was a Member of United Brethren Church

John B. Drummond, many years a resident of this city, died Friday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Cramer, residing east of Decatur near the Union Chapel church. Mr. Drummond had been ill some time from kidney trouble and complications and this was the cause of his death.

Mr. Drummond was born in this county August 31, 1846, and was 76 years, 6 months and 25 days old. He was married in 1870 to Miss Mary Jane Strickler (sic; should be Sarah Jane), and to this union were born 3 daughters. Mrs. Drummond died in 1879 and he was married the second time to Maria Allen, who with the three daughters survive. They are: Mrs. Nettie Simon, of Albany, Oregon; Mrs. Lydia Cramer, at whose home he died, and Mrs. Dick Roop of this city.

The deceased was converted in early life and united with the United Brethren church. He first became a member of the Pleasant Valley church, and after his removal to Decatur transferred his member to the Decatur U. B. church, where he since remained.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon leaving the home of the daughter in Union township at 1:30 o'clock, and at the U. B. church at 2 o'clock, Rev. Miner officiating.
