

DECATUR LADY DIES TODAY

Mrs. Maria Drummond Dies This Morning After Long Illness

Mrs. Maria Drummond, 90, stepmother of Mrs. Dick Roop and Mrs. George Cramer of this city, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at the George Cramer residence, following a three years illness.

Mrs. Drummond suffered a broken hip three years ago and had been bedfast since that time. She made her home with her stepdaughter, Mrs. Cramer for the last 14 years.

The deceased was born in Adams county, May 20, 1843, a daughter of David and Sarah Allen. She was united in marriage to John Drummond, who preceded her in death 12 years ago.

Mrs. Drummond was a devoted member of the Union Chapel United Brethren church.

Surviving are a daughter, Etta Cowell of Douglas, Wyoming, and three stepdaughters, Mrs. W. O. Simons, of Albany, Oregon; Mrs. Dick Roop and Mrs. George Cramer, Decatur, and one sister, Mrs. George Conn of Rochester.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Union Chapel Church with the Rev. Frank Engle officiating. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.
