

Stuart News, The (FL) - October 8, 2004

Hobe Sound, Gerald V. Eady, 90, died Oct. 2, 2004, at Brighton Gardens of Port St. Lucie. He was born in Decatur, Ind., and lived in Florida for 24 years, coming from LaPorte, Ind. He served in the Army Air Forces during World War II as a master sergeant with the 13th Air Force. Before retirement, he was an electrical engineer. He worked on handling equipment for the space shuttle. He was a member of the Masons.

Survivors include his wife, Eleanor Eady of Hobe Sound; daughters, Joyce Bryant of Hobe Sound and Julie Boller of Seattle; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

SERVICES: Arrangements are by Veterans Cremation & Burial Society, Stuart.