

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams Co, IN; Friday, 31 December 1982

Melvena I. Eady, 79, 1003 Winchester St., died at 8:15 a.m. Thursday in St. Anthony's Hospital, Crown Point, following an extended illness.

She was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

Born in Decatur on May 2, 1903, she was the daughter of Frank and Olive McBarnes-Butler, and was married to Francis Eady on June 14, 1923; he died in 1976.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Charles K. (Jayne) Whitted, Merrillville; two grandchildren, Mrs. Kim (Polly) Rushmore, Crown Point; Charles K. Whitted, Jr., Merrillville; and two great grandchildren, Gwendolyn and John.

Services will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Winteregg-Linn & Haggard Funeral Home, with Rev. C. Albert Nunery officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Saturday.