

Deaths in Indiana

DECATUR—Titus H. Ernst, 77 years old, well known throughout Adams county, died at his home here following an illness of more than three years with paralysis. Mr. Ernst served in Company A, 60th Ohio infantry, during the civil war. For fifteen years he was bailiff of the Adams Circuit court and custodian of the county Courthouse. Four daughters and two sons survive.

Indianapolis Daily Star, Indianapolis, IN; September 1, 1923

Contributed by Our Family Ties