

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, IN; Wednesday, January 2, 1991

Vivian G. Krick-Hunt, a Fort Wayne resident and Adams County native, died at 6:15 p.m. Monday in Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne, where she had been a patient since December 6. She had been in failing health the past several months.

She was born in Adams County to Frank and Mary (Myers) Lynch and was a member of the St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

A former hostess for Back 40 Restaurant for several years, she was first married to Joseph A. Krick on March 21, 1942. He preceded her in death on May 2, 1975. She then married K. Gail Hunt on April 9, 1980, he survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Linda Krick, and a brother, William Lynch. Both reside in New Carlisle, In.

Services are 2 p.m. Thursday at the Decatur Cemetery Chapel with Rev. James S. Hook officiating. Burial will follow in Decatur Cemetery. There is no public visitation.

Memorials are to the St. Mark's United Methodist Church or Shriner's Hospitals for Crippled Children through Zwick-Sefton & Jahn Funeral Home.