

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Wed., June 23, 2004

Harold J. Nash, 75, a resident of Decatur for most of his life before moving to Sebring, Florida, in 1988, died June 19 in Shediac, New Brunswick, Canada, where he and his wife were camping.

He was born May 24, 1929, in Markle, the son of Hersel and Mildred Jennings Nash. On May 27, 1950, he married the former Wilma I. Whitacre, who survives.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Tim (Cathy) Berkshire, Decatur; Mrs. Donald (Gwen) Lamley, St. Joe; and Linda J. Nash, Arkansas; two sons, Michael A. Nash, New Haven, and Patrick Nash, Decatur; a brother, Kenneth Nash of Missouri; 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

He retired from Central Soya after 48 years of service and was a longtime active member of Zion United Church of Christ in Decatur. He was active in the music department of the church, serving in the choir and leading Sunday School music. He was active in the adult Sunday School program and worked with the Youth Fellowship at the church and was a barbershop singer with the Adamizers.

He was also active in the local archery club.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Friday at Zwick & Jahn Funeral Home in Decatur.

Friends may call from 2-5 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. Thursday. Preferred memorials are to the donor's choice.
