Life of Mrs. Adel Neptune Closed Thursday Afternoon at 3:30 o'clock

Funeral Saturday Service Will be Held at the Home of Parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Spangler.

Lingering but six hours after she fired the fatal shot above her right temple, during a period of despondency, Mrs. Theresa Adel Spangler Neptune passed away yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Spangler, on Fifth street.

The deceased was born in this city September 19, 1871, and had she lived until next September would have been forth-five years of age. Practically all her life was spent here, except for a year or so that she and her husband, Dr. Dick Neptune, lived at Paragould, Ark.

She received her education in the Decatur high school. She was a girl and woman of fine ideals and lived a most exemplary Christian life. She was highly talented in art and many beautiful painting from her brush attest to her love of beauty and the highest and best that there is in life. She was a member of the Methodist church and lived a faithful, consistent Christian life.

She was married March 14, 1895, to Dr. Dick Neptune. A son, Kenneth, is living, his twin brother having died at birth. A sister, Ella, wife of B. J. Rice, survives, as do the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Spangler.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock from the home of her parents, Rev. F. F. Thornburg of the Methodist church officiating. The casket will be opened to only the immediate family and relatives. Burial will take [the clipping ends]
