

Jesse E. Niblick, 93, dies Sunday morning

Jesse E. Niblick, 93, of 308 North Fifth Street, well-known Decatur resident, died at 6:40 a.m. Sunday at the Adams county memorial hospital. He had been hospitalized for one day.

Mr. Niblick was a retired employe of the Decatur General Electric plant.

He was a 50 year member of the First united Methodist church and the Quarter Century club of General Electric.

He was born near Bryant on February 12, 1878, the son of Samuel and Emily Jane Summers-Niblick, and was married to Nota Winans on April 10, 1909. He was one of nine children.

He spent several years in California, but came back to Decatur and married Miss Winans. Mr. Niblick was a painter for the Pennsylvania railroad for several years. In 1920 he went to work at the Decatur General Electric Co. where he stayed until he retired.

Surviving are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Carl (Pauline) Miller of Fort Wayne; Mrs Eugene (Eleanor) Aeschliman of Jackson, Miss.; one brother, Fred Niblick of Muskegon, Mich.; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Winteregg-Linn funeral home, with Rev. Harold Leininger officiating. Burial will be in the Decatur cemetery. Friends may call at the Winteregg-Linn funeral home after 7 p.m. today.
