Niland D. Ochsenrider, 80, Dies Tuesday After Illness

A resident of Capri II in Bluffton, Niland D. Ochsenrider, 80, died at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday at Meadowvale Care Center following an extended illness.

Born in Montpelier, Feb. 18, 1909, he was a son of Elias and Lilly Leist Ochsenrider. His marriage to the former Catherine D. Eady, who survives, took place Oct. 15, 1933.

Mr. Ochsenrider retired in 1972 after working 31 years at General Electric in Decatur, where he was a member of the GE Quarter Century Club. He was also a member of the First United Methodist Church in Bluffton, Decatur Masonic Lodge and Order of the Eastern Star. He had been active in Boy Scouts for 25 years.

Survivors, in addition to the wife, include one son, Dr. Robert Oschenrider of Shelbyville; and two grandsons.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Thursday at Haggard & Armes Funeral Home in Decatur, where Masonic services will be conducted at 8 p.m.

Funeral services, under the direction of Rev. Larry Ray and Dr. Robert Ochsenrider, will be at the funeral home at 10 a.m. Friday, followed by burial in Decatur Cemetery.

Preferred forms of memorial are to the Estral Scholarship Fund of the Order of the Eastern Star, or the American Cancer Society.
