

Evening News Banner, Wells County, Indiana; Friday, Oct. 30, 1931

CHANCY OLIVER'S BROTHER IS DEAD

WILLIAM H. OLIVER DIES AT KALAMAZOO AND BODY TO BE BROUGHT HERE.

William Homer Oliver, 43, died at 6:30 Thursday evening at his home in Kalamazoo, Michigan, after an extended illness from Brights Disease.

Mr. Oliver was born in Decatur, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Oliver. He was 43 years and three days of age at the time of his death. Mr. Oliver moved to Michigan in 1912 and had been employed as claim adjustor at the Allied Paper company.

Surviving are three children, Robert Oliver, Harriet Oliver and Marilyn Jane Oliver, all of Kalamazoo. One brother, Chauncy Oliver, lives on Clark avenue, this city.

The body will be brought to the home of the brother in this city Saturday night. Short funeral services will be held at the Chancy Oliver home, Clark avenue, at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. G.F. Hubbartt. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.