

Decatur Daily Democrat, Adams County, Indiana; Aug. 5, 1986

FLORENCE N. REINHARD

Florence N. Reinhard, 74, 433 Bollman St., a retired nurse, died at 4:50 p.m. Monday in Adams County Memorial Hospital, following an extended illness.

She was a private duty nurse in Decatur from 1935-51, registered nurse in Columbia City hospital 1951-61, at the Huntington hospital from 1961-66, and was head nurse at the Flinn home in Marion from 1966-71. She was a member of First Baptist Church.

Born in Kingsland on Oct. 24, 1911, she was the daughter of James E. and Bessie M. Rannels-Anderson, and was married Sept. 3, 1937 to John S. Reinhard; he survives. Two sisters and one brother preceded her in death.

Memorial services will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. in the chapel of the Decatur Cemetery, Rev. Michael Brown officiating, with burial to follow. There will be no calling hours. Preferred memorials are to the Cancer Society. Winteregg-Linn & Haggard Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.