

Mrs. Harriet Rice Is Dead

Prominent Root Township Lady Dies At Local Hospital

Mrs. Harriet M. Rice, 71, well known Root township resident and mother of Ralph W. Rice, Root township trustee, died this morning at 12:15 o'clock at the Adams county memorial hospital.

Death was attributed to uremia, following an illness of two weeks.

The deceased was born in Root township on June 21, 1867 the daughter of John K. and Cecilia Eyanson-Evans. She was married on September 11, 1883 to David M. Rice. He preceded her in death on October 2, 1928. She was a member of the First Methodist church here.

Surviving, besides the son, Ralph W. are the following children: D. Otto Rice of Sioux City, Iowa; Edith M. Crawford of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Florence Van Order of South Bend; Robert J., also of Root township; and two brother, John K. Evans and David Evans, of Decatur; 11 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. Four children are deceased.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence and 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist church with the Rev. R. W. Graham officiating. Burial will be made in the Decatur cemetery.

The body will be returned to the residence from the Gillig and Doan funeral home this evening and may be viewed there until time for the services.
