

Millard Max Aschliman

by Adrienne Kaehr

Millard Max Aschliman was born on July 26, 1919. He was born to Joseph and Lena Aschliman. He had five older siblings and two younger siblings. Aschliman got married to Alice Fiechter on October 16, 1949. Alice was the daughter of John and Lydia Fiechter. Aschliman and his wife had five children: Diane (Von Heyerly), Loretta (David Smith), Derryl (Peggy Gerber), Laura (Mark Grime), and Lou Ann (Keith Kaehr). Each one of the children got married and stayed in the Adams, Wells, and Allen counties.

Millard went to grammar school growing up and ended up working on his parents farm. He took over his parents' farm when he was married. He was drafted into World War 2 in 1942. He was a part of the Apostolic Christian Church near Bluffton, Indiana.

Aschliman died on September 25, 1998 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. He is buried along with his wife in the Apostolic Christian Church cemetery.

Kaehr, Lou Ann. Personal Interview. 17 Oct. 2013