

Minnie (Gerber) Aschliman

By Hunter Bertsch

Minnie Aschliman

Minnie Aschliman was born in Adams County on March 23, 1911. Her parents were Jehu and Lydia Gerber, and she had fourteen brothers and sisters combined. She helped her husband Homer farm and also was a Sunday-School teacher in church. The job description of Minnie is a homemaker. Minnie also made quilts for the World Relief organization showing the character she had in her life. Christian Care is where Minnie stayed during her final years of life. Her husband passed away on the 26th of April, in 2002. She died at the age of 99, in 2010, and was a devoted follower of Christ. Minnie is now buried at the Apostolic Christian Church Cemetery. Both Minnie and Homer worked hard for what they had, and both had a firm foundation in Christ. Now they are both rejoicing and at peace in heaven.
