

Maxine (Smith) Elzey

By Destiny Hurley

Maxine (Smith) Elzey

Maxine (Smith) Elzey was the daughter of William Smith and Elizabeth Kuntz. Maxine was born on October 19, 1921, in Adams County Indiana, USA. She married Howard Elzey on July 31, 1948. During her lifetime she suffered through the Great Depression with her husband Howard, and in that time of depression she had four children: Richard H. Elzey, Larry Elzey, Sharon Elzey, and Karen Elzey. All of which are still living. She never really made any great accomplishments, but she was a great mother and raised all her children while she was a stay at home mom. Maxine never moved out of Adams County, and she attended a Missionary Church regularly with her husband and children. Maxine died in on July 2, 1970, in Adams County Indiana, USA and is buried in Backesto Cemetery next to her husband Howard.

Biography Citation

Elzey, Richard. Personal Interview. 17 Oct. 2013.