

LeRoy D. Emenhiser

by Cody Emenhiser

LeRoy D. Emenhiser

LeRoy Emenhiser was born on February 22, 1921. His parents were Coyle D. and Marie (Ray) Emenhiser. He was married to Doris Hege on September 27, 1941. They had two children: Jerry and Karen. LeRoy was a farmer. He also had an excavating business and owned a mobile home park in Monroeville, Indiana. LeRoy was well known in community. LeRoy liked to raise exotic animals ranging from fainting goats to ostriches. Every once in a while he would take a llama into town. The storeowners would let him take the llama inside with him to help attract customers. Everyone thought it was neat that the llama would follow him around so they would come back in hopes of seeing the llama again. LeRoy died September 19, 1995 in Monroeville Indiana. He is buried in the Monroeville Memorial Cemetery in Monroeville, Allen County, Indiana.

Citation

Jason, Emenhiser. Personal Interview. 18 Oct. 2013