

William Fiechter

By Maria Wemhoff

William Fiechter

William Fiechter was born on December 24, 1887 to John J Fiechter Sr. and Lena (Reinhard) Fiechter. William met a young lady named Saloma Aeschliman. William and Saloma got married on November 29, 1914. Saloma's parents were John Aeschliman and Elizabeth (Barger) Aeschliman. William and Saloma had five children. Dorothy Leona Fiechter was born on December 31, 1914 and died March 29, 2010. Herman John Fiechter was born on December 5, 1927 and is still alive. Carl Henry Fiechter was born on February 7, 1931 and is still alive. Mary Jane Fiechter was born on February 2, 1933 and is still alive. Charles David Fiechter was born on March 11, 1937 and died on February 4, 2011. William was alive to see Herman married in 1949. William was a farmer. William died on March 2, 1967.

Biography Citation

Baumgartner, John. The First One Hundred Years. 1st ed. Bluffton: 1970. 218-219. Print.

Reinhard, Jerome. Email interview. Oct. 2013.

William Fiechter

By Sarah Fiechter

William Fiechter

William Fiechter was born on December 24, 1887. He was the son of John Fiechter and Lena Reinhart. His siblings were Bertha, Fred, John Jr., Joel, Fannie, Emma, Alma, David, Daniel, Queenie, Elizabeth, and Lillian. At age 27 he married Solome Aeschliman who was born on January 1, 1894, and died May 31, 1988. They married on November 29, 1914.

William and Solome had 5 children. Dorothy, Herman, Carly, Mary Jane, and Charles. They lived in Bluffton, Indiana. He started farming in 1927, but before that he had a boarding business. What he did was when people would come to town they would leave their horses with him. Then he started a store with someone with the last name Isch and they sold implements. Then He bought his farm. He was also a member in the Apostolic Church. He died on March 5, 1967.

Sources:

Baumgartner, John. The First One Hundred Years. 1st ed. Bluffton: 1970. 218-219. Print.

Fiechter, Stacey. Personal interview. 14 Oct. 2013.