

Anastasia (Torres) Jauregui

By Noah Quinones

Anastasia Torres married Victoriano Jauregui on February 13, 1876. They both lived in Mexico in the Guadalajara area. They had six children together. Their names were Teofilo (1877-1954), Louisa (1878-1949), Simon (1882-1954), Refugio (1884-1953), Andrea (1886-1932) and Juan (1895-1978). They both took on whatever jobs they could and were saving up to move to America, however Victoriano died from a heart condition before they migrated in 1917. Anastasia had a hard time raising six kids by herself and taking on the challenge to move to America by herself, but she did manage and she did make it to their destination.

Ancestry.com, online

<<http://www.ancestry.com/search/rectype/inddb/3141a.htm>> ,

Quinones, Judy. Personal Interview. 17 Oct. 2013

