

Ellison Neuenschwander

By Gavin Kaehr

Ellison Neuenschwander

Ellison Neuenschwander was born on April 5, 1909 in Adams County, Indiana. His main occupation was an Upholsterer. He had his own business and had a workshop at his home. He primarily stayed in the Berne area all his life and worked. He married Elfrieda Habegger on April 22, 1934 in Berne, Indiana. They had six children. Elfrieda died at a young age, and Ellison remarried a woman named Isabelle. Their names were Stanely, Virginia, Karen, Anita, Gretchen, and Ted. He was a part of the large Mennonite church in downtown Berne. Ellison died when he was 65 years old on April 24, 1974 in Adams County, IN. He died from a heart condition. He is buried at the MRE cemetery in Berne, Indiana.

Adams County, Indiana; Index to Marriage Records 1845 - 1920 Inclusive Vo, W. P. A.
Original Record Located County Clerks Off; Book: H; Page: 529.

<<http://www.ancestry.com/>>.

Kaehr, Amy. Personal Interview. 16 Oct. 2013