

Elizabeth Theresa (Roudebush) Oliver

By Andy Oliver

Elizabeth, who went by Betty most of her life, was born on March 8, 1930 in Monroe, Indiana She was born to Wilbur and Margaret (Coyne) Roudebush. She was the youngest of Wilbur and Margaret's 4 children. All the rest of her siblings are brothers. She married Frank on October 21, 1949. Betty was a homemaker and spent most of her early to middle years raising her 6 children. During her later years, after her children were grown up, she hauled amish and spent time with her 10 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. She died on February 3, 2009 from complications of a routine surgery.