

Edward Parrish, Jr.

by Chelsea Emenhiser

Edward Parrish Jr.

Edward Parrish Jr. was born in 1640 in Elizabeth City, Virginia. His parents were Edward Parrish Sr. and Dorothy (Kerton) Parrish. They emigrated from Yorkshire, England in 1635 to Virginia. In 1655, when he was 15, he and his family migrated from Virginia to Anne Arundel, Maryland. He married Clara (Gudgeon\Gudgin\Judgwyn) Parrish in 1664 in Maryland. They had six children: Edward, John, Anne, Mary, Richard, and William. Edward Jr. was a Maryland Quaker. He died in 1680 when his boat capsized and he drowned in Maryland waters, he was 40 years old. Edward is now buried in the family cemetery on Herring Creek, West River Hundred, Anne Arundel, Maryland.
