Harold Victor Schwartz

By Madison Schwartz

Harold Victor Schwartz, was my great grandpa. He was born in Berne, Indiana, on, June 27, 1920. In his younger years, he was Amish. He was old enough that knew Swiss, but his conversion age was unknown. Harold attended high school, but had not records of college. At the age of 19, he married Marybelle Sprunger on March 24. The first few years they lived with Marybelle's parents, Dove and George Sprunger. Then in 1940, Harold and Marybelle bought their own house in Monroe, IN. Harold worked at AC as a Janitor and a bus driver, and he also farmed his own land. Marybelle and Harold had three kids. She had two miscarriages, one with a little girl named Minnie Asenath in 1941, and the other was non-recorded. Then she gave birth to Sidney Schwartz, on June 6, 1935. On March 16, 1994, Harold passed away in his house while taking a nap on his lunch hour. He had an abdominal aortic aneurism at the age of 73. Harold's resting place was M R E Cemetery.
