

Corey Lee Scott

By Mallorie Vorhees

Corey Lee Scott was born on December 28, 1968 in Fort Wayne, IN. Corey was the son of Dennis and Diana Scott. He was a brother to Lori Scott. Corey attended Belmont High School throughout his teenage years. After highschool, he pursued his dreams of being a stuntman. He worked for the Joie Chitwood Thrill Show located in Tampa, Florida. At the age of 26 Corey started his own company that was known as Scott's Superstunts. Inside this business he traveled around the country performing different stunts using his motorcycle. Unfortunately at the age of 28 his dreams were cut short. On February 8, 1997 in Miami, Florida in a stadium, Corey was killed doing what he had a passion for. Corey's resting place is here in Decatur, IN.
