

Winfield Scott

By Mallorie Vorhees

Winfield Scott was born in Crawford County Crestline, Ohio. He was born on December 29, 1857. Winfield was the son of Samuel Scott and Henrietta Salaway. After growing up Winfield's first known residence was on Buchanan St. in Fort Wayne, IN. Then after marrying his wife, Margaret Prophet, they moved to their own farm in Monroe Township. Throughout his lifetime Winfield pursued many different types of jobs. His first job was taking up railroading. His second job was then a farmer where he had his own farm, where he lived, in Monroe Township. During these two careers Winfield took up being a fireman. Winfield and his wife, Margaret Prophet, had nine children. After living his life on his farm, Winfield died in Monroeville, Indiana on March 28, 1942.
