

Ida Roselle Haines-Steiner

By Kathryn Christener

Ida Roselle Haines-Steiner was born June 25, 1924. She died on December 12, 2003. Ida went by Roselle and she had two siblings, Helen Ruth and Don. Helen is still living and would be my great aunt. Helen is younger by 18 months. Roselle got married to my grandpa, Howard Steiner, on November 19, 1949. They, together, had three children. Kerry, Carolyn (my mom), and Kent. My grandma worked as a housewife, sewed for a company, and was incredibly well known by how good she was. She loved taking pictures and she was really good at accounting. She spent a lot of time with her kids and cooking. My grandpa was a farmer, which gave her the responsibility of also helping him when he needed it. She was lovable and compassionate and everyone that knew her spoke highly of her. She died on December 12, 2003.

Source: Steiner, Carolyn. Personal Interview. 14 Oct 2013.