The Adams Co, IN forum was re-indexed by Rootsweb in late Dec 2012

Names listed after the re-index may not show up in a search. You may have to go through the list manually to find obits posted after the re-indexing date.

Please be aware that the spelling of any surname can change with time or may be a newspaper typo.

The first post on the Adams County board was 2 March 1998. Obits, queries, bios, wills, records, land transactions, bibles, etc. have been added over the years. If you have any records that might be of help to others reseaching families or individuals in Adams County please share them on our message board.

Note: copyrighted material from newspapers or funeral homes may be abstracted, but not directly copied. The Decatur Daily Democrat has graciously given permission for the obituaries printed in that paper to be copied to the Adams County GenWeb site for the personal use of researchers.
