WEDDING AT PARSONAGE SUN. (Handwritten date of Monday, June 25, 1934)

Miss Rachel Amstutz is Bride of Abraham Lehman

Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Rachel Amstutz to Abraham Lehman, both well-known young people of this community. The marriage was solemnized at the parsonage of the local Mennonite church, Rev. C. H. Suckau officiating. The ceremony, while a simple one, was an impressive affair.

Miss Anna Amstutz and Eldon Lehman, sister and brother respectively of the bride and groom attended the couple.

Both the bride and her attendant were attired in gowns of blue crepe, with white accessories. The groom and his attendant wore dark blue suits.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Amstutz of southeast of Berne and is well-known here. She has been doing housework in Berne for the last year.

The groom is a son of Otto Lehman, living several miles southeast of Berne. He has been employed at the local elevator of the Berne Equity Exchange Co. the past several years.

The couple will be at home with the groom's father.
