

December 6, 1934

ASKS DIVORCE AT FT. WAYNE

Mrs. Catherine Peters Liechty Sues Thurman Liechty

Ft. Wayne, Dec. 6 – Charging that her husband, Thurman Liechty, associated with strange women and was addicted to the drink habit, Mrs. Catherine Liechty filed suit for divorce in superior No. 1 Monday.

Mrs. Liechty averred further that Liechty had been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment in that he manifested a violent and ungovernable temper. Married August 15, 1934, the parties separated November 11. Mrs. Liechty seeks restoration of her maiden name, Catherine Peters.

Mr. Liechty has many close relatives in Berne, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Liechty.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 114

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

October 4, 2012

ASKS DIVORCE AT FT. WAYNE

Mrs. Catherine Peters Liech- ty Sues Thurman Liechty

1934
Ft. Wayne, Dec. 6—Charging that her husband, Thurman Liechty, associated with strange women and was addicted to the drink habit, Mrs. Catherine Liechty filed suit for divorce in superior No. 1 Monday.

Mrs. Liechty averred further that Liechty had been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment in that he manifested a violent and ungovernable temper. Married August 15, 1934, the parties separated November 11. Mrs. Liechty seeks restoration of her maiden name, Catherine Peters.

Mr. Liechty has many close relatives in Berne, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Liechty.

December 6, 1934

BERNE MANUFACTURING PARTY

A number of girls who are employed at the Berne Manufacturing Company had a party at the home of Miss Nell Luginbill, Monday evening.

A dinner was served, the menu consisting of chicken noodles, creamed peas, potato salad, pickles, perfection salad and sandwiches for the first course and cake, fruit salad, pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and nuts, and coffee constituted the second course.

Games and contests were played, Mrs. Carl Hedington and Miss Nora Soldner being winners of prizes. A Christmas exchange was enjoyed and Christmas carols were sung.

The dining table was centered with an evergreen plant and decorated with red tapers and candles. The dining room was cleverly decorated in keeping with the Christmas season. The dinner was served by candle-light.

Those present were Mrs. Jane Tucker, Josephine Hendricks, Nora Soldner, Barbara Martin, Wilma Inniger, Elvira Lehman, Mrs. Herman Fox, Florence Schindler, Mrs. Carl Hedington, Mildred Habegger, Barbara and Selma Burry, Surilda Riesen, Eleanor Dro, Julia Colpaert and the hostess Nell Luginbill.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 114

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

October 4, 2012

BERNE MANUFACTURING PARTY
Thurs. Dec. 6, 1934
A number of girls who are employed at the Berne Manufacturing Company had a party at the home of Miss Nell Luginbill, Monday evening.

A dinner was served, the menu consisting of chicken noodles, creamed peas, potato salad, pickles, perfection salad and sandwiches for the first course and cake, fruit salad, pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and nuts, and coffee constituted the second course.

Games and contests were played, Mrs. Carl Hedington and Miss Nora Soldner being winners of prizes. A Christmas exchange was enjoyed and Christmas carols were sung.

The dining table was centered with an evergreen plant and decorated with red tapers and candles. The dining room was cleverly decorated in keeping with the Christmas season. The dinner was served by candle-light.

Those present were Mrs. Jane Tucker, Josephine Hendricks, Nora Soldner, Barbara Martin, Wilma Inniger, Elvira Lehman, Mrs. Herman Fox, Florence Schindler, Mrs. Carl Hedington, Mildred Habegger, Barbara and Selma Burry, Surilda Riesen, Eleanor Dro, Julia Colpaert and the hostess Nell Luginbill.

December 6, 1934

BERNE NATIVE DIES MONDAY

Mrs. Samuel Klopfenstein Dies at Hesperia, Michigan

Mrs. Samuel Klopfenstein, age about 60, formerly Rosina Stucky, daughter of Christian and Fannie Moser Stucky, deceased, died at Hesperia, Mich., Monday evening. The cause of death was not learned here but she had been ill several weeks. She was born in French township and moved to Michigan about 25 years ago.

Sisters who survive are Mrs. Jacob Schindler, Mrs. Adam Augsburger, Mrs. Peter N. Moser and Mrs. Abraham Egly, all of Berne, and Mrs. Levi Klopfenstein of Woodburn. The former three attended the funeral which was held at Hesperia Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ben Sprunger of this place is a niece of the deceased.

Brothers who preceded her are Henry, Abraham, David, Amos and Christian.

Three children survive together with the husband who is a mail carrier in Hesperia. They are Melvin, Christian and Lillian.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 114

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

October 4, 2012

BERNE NATIVE DIES MONDAY

Mrs. Samuel Klopfenstein
Dies at Hesperia,

Illino. Michigan

Dec. 6, 1934

Mrs. Samuel Klopfenstein, age about 60, formerly Rosina Stucky, daughter of Christian and Fannie Moser Stucky, deceased, died at Hesperia, Mich., Monday evening. The cause of death was not learned here but she had been ill several weeks. She was born in French township and moved to Michigan about 25 years ago.

Sisters who survive are Mrs. Jacob Schindler, Mrs. Adam Augsburger, Mrs. Peter N. Moser and Mrs. Abraham Egly, all of Berne, and Mrs. Levi Klopfenstein of Woodburn. The former three attended the funeral which was held at Hesperia Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ben Sprunger of this place is a niece of the deceased.

Brothers who preceded her are Henry, Abraham, David, Amos and Christian.

Three children survive together with the husband who is a mail carrier in Hesperia. They are Melvin, Christian and Lillian.

November 22, 1934

FATHER OF MRS. MORAND DIES

John Badertscher, 67, Is Victim of Heart Attack

John Badertscher, aged 67, of Wayne County, Ohio, died suddenly Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock according to a telegram received here by relatives. He was the father of Mrs. Daniel Morand of this place, and of Lewellen Badertscher, who has been staying at the home here for the past two years.

Mr. Badertscher died in a hospital at Alliance, Ohio. He had been suffering from a rupture and when peritonitis set in he was taken to the hospital. Last evening he suffered a heart attack and died immediately.

The deceased was a native of Switzerland. He was well known in this community.

Surviving are the wife, formerly Fannie Sommer, and the following children: Mrs. Daniel (Irene) Morand of Berne; Albert of Kidron; Milton of Sebring; Ivan of Dalton; Mrs. Clair Amstutz of Goshen; Lewellen of Berne; Hulda of Cleveland and Martha, Mary Jane and Thomas Lee, all at home.

The funeral will be held Saturday at Kidron, Ohio. Local relatives will attend.

FATHER OF MRS. MORAND DIES

John Badertscher, 67, Is Victim of Heart

Hours: Attack

Nov. 22, 1934

John Badertscher, aged 67, of Wayne County, Ohio, died suddenly Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock according to a telegram received here by relatives. He was the father of Mrs. Daniel Morand of this place, and of Lewellen Badertscher, who has been staying at the Morand home here for the past two years.

Mr. Badertscher died in a hospital at Alliance, Ohio. He had been suffering from a rupture and when peritonitis set in he was taken to the hospital. Last evening he suffered a heart attack and died immediately.

The deceased was a native of Switzerland. He was well known in this community.

Surviving are the wife, formerly Fannie Sommer, and the following children: Mrs. Daniel (Irene) Morand of Berne; Albert of Kidron; Milton of Sebring; Ivan of Dalton; Mrs. Clair Amstutz of Goshen; Lewellen of Berne; Hulda of Cleveland and Martha, Mary Jane and Thomas Lee, all at home.

The funeral will be held Saturday at Kidron, Ohio. Local relatives will attend.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 114

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

October 4, 2012

December 3, 1934

MONROE GIRL IS BRIDE

The marriage of Miss Loma Hahnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hahnert of Monroe, and Lee T. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Miller of Adams County, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Monroe at high noon Thursday. The families of the couples witnessed the ceremony.

Rev. Elbert Morford, pastor of the Monroe Methodist church, officiated at the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Howard V. Hahnert attended the bride and Howard V. Hahnert, brother of the bride attended the groom.

MONROE GIRL IS BRIDE

Mon. Dec 3, 1934

The marriage of Miss Loma Hahnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hahnert of Monroe, and Lee T. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Miller of Adams County, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Monroe at high noon Thursday. The families of the couples witnessed the ceremony.

Rev. Elbert Morford, pastor of the Monroe Methodist church, officiated at the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Howard V. Hahnert attended the bride and Howard V. Hahnert, brother of the bride attended the

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 114

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

October 4, 2012

December 6, 1934

SNOW-COLDER IS PREDICTED

Winter's First Real Touch Due Here
Tonight, Friday

The first real touch of winter is due here tonight or by Friday, according to the United States Weather Buruea forecast this afternoon. The forecast is for mostly cloudy and colder tonight, with snow by Friday or Friday night for central and northern Indiana. The lowest temperature tonight is expected to be between 15 and 20 degrees, with colder weather Friday night.

At Chicago the temperature has dropped several degrees today, and was reported to be at 20 degrees at noon, with six inches of snow on the ground.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 114

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

October 4, 2012

SNOW-COLDER IS PREDICTED

Winter's First Real Touch
Due Here Tonight,
Thurs. Friday

Dec. 6, 1934

The first real touch of winter is due here tonight or by Friday, according to the United States Weather Bureau forecast this afternoon. The forecast is for mostly cloudy and colder tonight, with snow by Friday or Friday night for central and northern Indiana. The lowest temperature tonight is expected to be between 15 and 20 degrees, with colder weather Friday night.

At Chicago the temperature has dropped several degrees today, and was reported to be at 20 degrees at noon, with six inches of snow on the ground.