

1934 Scrapbook #1, Image #116

December 3, 1934

BUYS CREAM STATION

Bluffton, Dec. 3 – Raymond E Moser, manager of the Star hatchery on East Wabash street, is starting a creamery in connection with the hatchery and will act as the agent for the Beatrice Creamery Co. Until recently Kenneth De Wees, with a location on North Main street, had been buying cream for this company.

ANNUAL FARM INSTITUTE IN BERNE FEB. 7
(1935)

List of Dates for Series of Meetings Announced
Today

FRED BLUM IS CHAIRMAN HERE

The annual Berne Farmers' Institute will be held Thursday, Feb. 7, it was announced today. The institute, which is one of the outstanding events of the winter season here, will probably be held at the Auditorium as in former years. Fred Blum is chairman of the local institute. The speakers will be a Mr. Masters and Mrs. Van Nice, both of the central part of the state.

The series of institutes in the county this year will be held a little later than usual, as they have been held in January during the past several years.

Other institutes in the county will be held on the following dates:

Monmouth, February 1
Pleasant Mills, February 2
Union, February 5
Hartford, February 6
Kirkland, February 8
Monroe, February 9.

C. W. R. Schwartz is chairman

ANNUAL FARM INSTITUTE IN BERNE FEB. 7

— 1935 —
List of Dates for Series of Meetings Announced
Today

FRED BLUM IS CHAIRMAN HERE

The annual Berne Farmers' Institute will be held Thursday, Feb. 7, it was announced today. The institute, which is one of the outstanding events of the winter season here, will probably be held at the Auditorium as in former years. Fred Blum is chairman of the local institute. The speakers will be a Mr. Masters and Mrs. Van Nice, both of the central part of the state.

The series of institutes in the county this year will be held a little later than usual, as they have been held in January during the past several years.

Other institutes in the county will be held on the following dates:

Monmouth, February 1
Pleasant Mills, February 2
Union, February 5
Hartford, February 6
Kirkland, February 8
Monroe, February 9.

C. W. R. Schwartz is chairman

Adam's County Historical Museum Scrapbooks

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

September 27, 2012

December 3, 1934

MENNO EICHER CLAIMS BRIDE

Deaf and Dumb Young Man Weds Miss Fannie Schwartz

Menno Eicher, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eicher of south-east of Berne, was married to Miss Fannie Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schwartz of east of Berne. The wedding was an event of Thanksgiving day, and took place at the home of the groom's brother, John Eicher. The ceremony was performed at high noon, in the presence of many members of the congregation.

At noon a huge wedding dinner was served at the Jacob Eicher home, and a big supper was also served in the evening to a large crowd.

The groom is deaf and dumb and quite a few from Berne motored to the Eicher home to witness the rather unusual wedding. Mr. Eicher attended school at Indianapolis.

The couple will live with the groom's parents for the present.

MENNO EICHER Mon CLAIMS BRIDE Dec. 3, 1934 Deaf and Dumb Young Man Weds Miss Fannie Schwartz

Menno Eicher, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eicher of south-east of Berne, was married to Miss Fannie Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schwartz of east of Berne. The wedding was an event of Thanksgiving day, and took place at the home of the groom's brother, John Eicher. The ceremony was performed at high noon, in the presence of many members of the congregation.

At noon a huge wedding dinner was served at the Jacob Eicher home, and a big supper was also served in the evening to a large crowd.

The groom is deaf and dumb and quite a few from Berne motored to the Eicher home to witness the rather unusual wedding. Mr. Eicher attended school at Indianapolis.

The couple will live with the groom's parents for the present.

Monday, December 10, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. Noah D. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Habegger and Mrs. Elizabeth Graber are visiting relatives in Allen county today.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Inniger, the Misses Metta Habegger and Naomi Schwartz, and Ben Mazelin and Reuben Steury, spent Sunday afternoon and evening with relatives, north of Fort Wayne.

Miss Hunan Schwartz is doing the house work at the Chris Stengel home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah D. Schwartz,
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Habegger and Mrs. Elizabeth Graber are visiting relatives in Allen county today. Mon. Dec. 10, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Inniger, the
Misses Metta Habegger and Naomi
Schwartz, and Ben Mazelin and Reuben Steury, spent Sunday afternoon and evening with relatives
north of Fort Wayne. 1934

Miss Hulda Schwartz is doing
the house work at the Chris Stengel home here. Mon. Dec. 10.

December 3, 1934

NORA BAGLEY BUYS HAT SHOP

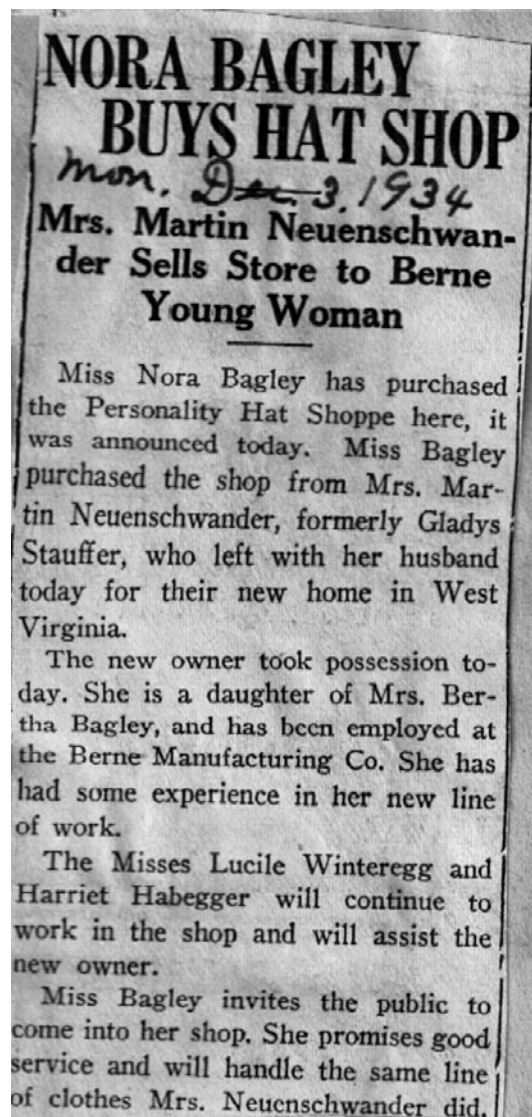

Mrs. Martin Neuenschwander Sells Store to Berne Young Woman

Miss Nora Bagley has purchased the Personality Hat Shoppe here, it was announced today. Miss Bagley purchased the shop from Mrs. Martin Neuenschwander, formerly Gladys Stauffer, who left with her husband today for their new home in West Virginia.

The new owner took possession today. She is a daughter of Mrs. Bertha Bagley, and has been employed at the Berne Manufacturing Co. She has had some experience in her new line of work.

The Misses Lucile Winteregg and Harriet Habegger will continue to work in the shop and will assist the new owner.

Miss Bagley invites the public to come into her shop. She promises good service and will handle the same line of clothes Mrs. Neuenschwander did.

NORA BAGLEY
BUYS HAT SHOP
Mon. Dec. 3, 1934
Mrs. Martin Neuenschwan-
der Sells Store to Berne
Young Woman

Miss Nora Bagley has purchased the Personality Hat Shoppe here, it was announced today. Miss Bagley purchased the shop from Mrs. Martin Neuenschwander, formerly Gladys Stauffer, who left with her husband today for their new home in West Virginia.

The new owner took possession today. She is a daughter of Mrs. Bertha Bagley, and has been employed at the Berne Manufacturing Co. She has had some experience in her new line of work.

The Misses Lucile Winteregg and Harriet Habegger will continue to work in the shop and will assist the new owner.

Miss Bagley invites the public to come into her shop. She promises good service and will handle the same line of clothes Mrs. Neuenschwander did.

Thursday, December 6, 1934

ROBERT EHRSAM GETS COACHING JOB AT LYNN

Local Young Man Signs Contract to Teach and Coach

STARTS WORK NEXT MONDAY

Robert Ehram, well known local young man and a son of Morris Ehram of Berne, has secured a position as teacher and coach at the Lynn high school, it was learned today. Mr. Ehram will begin his new duties next Monday, Dec. 10. He will teach mathematics and physical education, and will also be head coach of the Lynn varsity basket ball team.

ROBERT EHRSAM
GETS COACHING
JOB AT LYNN

Local Young Man Signs Contract to Teach and Coach

STARTS WORK
NEXT MONDAY

Robert Ehram, well known local young man and a son of Morris Ehram of Berne, has secured a position as teacher and coach at the Lynn high school, it was learned today. Mr. Ehram will begin his new duties next Monday, Dec. 10. He will teach mathematics and physical education, and will also be head coach of the Lynn varsity basket ball team.

ACCEPTS LYNN POSITION

Robert Ehram
Times-Recorder, Dec. 6, 1934

Adam's County Historical Museum Scrapbooks

Transcribed by Randy Gephart

September 27, 2012