

1934 Scrapbook, image 38

(Handwritten: Thursday, May 31, 1934)

AGED RESIDENT SAYS THIS IS DRIEST SPRING

Andrew Gottschalk, well known local druggist, who has already passed the four-score of years, stated today that this is the driest spring this community has experienced as far back as he can recall. Mr. Gottschalk said that several dry springs have occurred but there was always more rainfall than on this spring.

SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

Menno Liechty, of Ann Arbor, Mich., who suffered a stroke of paralysis recently, is slightly improved, it was reported today. He is conscious at times. Several from here visited him yesterday. They were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Liechty, David O. Liechty, Mrs. Hiram Sprunger and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Liechty.

TO MOVE ON FARM

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Habegger and family, living in Berne at the present, plan to move on the farm where John Hindenlang and family now live, east of town. Mr. Hindenlang recently purchased a farm east of Monroe.

(Handwritten: Monday, May 28, 1934)

Ralph Blosser of Goshen called on Miss Elizabeth Habegger of this place yesterday.

Myrtle Schrock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah N. Schrock of north of town underwent an appendicitis operation at the Adams County Memorial Hospital last evening.

Jesse Wittwer, who underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix several days ago, was removed to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wittwer on Saturday.

Miss Esther Schrock, who underwent an appendicitis operation recently is getting along as well as can be expected. She is at the Adams County Memorial Hospital.

(Handwritten: July 1, 1934)

Those that spent Sunday evening at the Harold Hirschy home were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hess and daughters, Ruth, Kathern, Margaret and Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hess and daughters Elizabeth, Patsy, Rosia and Betty, Eugene, Willie, Wilbur and Virgil Cook, Fred Lough, Maxine Bailer, Lola Bollenbacher. The evening was spent in eating ice cream.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image #38

Transcribed by Karin King