

COUPLES MARRIED TOGETHER
MARK FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Monroe, Ind. Nov. 20, 1934

The golden anniversaries of M. and Mrs. W. H. Haggard and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Haggard, all of the city, will be celebrated Wednesday at the home of the former couple in the form of a dinner party at noon, followed by an open house for their friends and relatives from 2 to 4 o'clock.

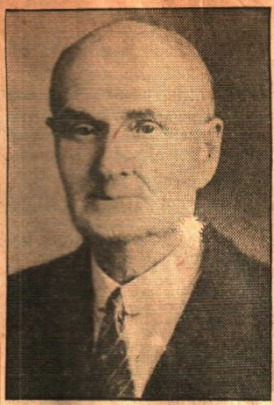

Fifty years ago, on November 21, 1884, W. H. Haggard married Miss Effie Mix and his brother, Dick, married Miss Anna M. Ludy, in a double ceremony in Paulding County, O., where they were all residents.

Forty-three years ago, the two brothers and their families moved to farms near Monroe where they have resided since.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haggard were five children: Mrs. Elfa Jones, of Pleasant Mills; A. W. Haggard, 611 Kinsmoor Ave., Fort Wayne; Jacob Haggard, of Monroe; the Rev. Enos Haggard of Hagerstown, and Harve Haggard, a school teacher in Petroleum.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Haggard are: J. F. Haggard, 924 Dayton Ave., Fort Wayne, and C. W. Haggard of Monroe.
