

START ROUTE

Nov. 19, 1934

The Fort Wayne News-Sentinel has started a special delivery route along Federal road 27 between Decatur and Geneva. The paper is delivered to the houses late each afternoon.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 86

Transcribed by Judy Canterbury

Teacher, Attorney Wed Today

Thurs. Nov. 29, 1934

MISS GRACE
MELLEN, 331

West Main Street, daughter of Mrs. Mary Mellen, of Booneville, and Mr. Roy Welty, 811 West Washington Boulevard, son of the Rev. A. D. Welty, of Lima, O., were married in a simple ceremony this morning at 11 o'clock at the Plymouth Congregational Church. The Rev. Charles H. Hines, pastor, officiated the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. The couple were unattended.

A becoming shade of brown velvet fashioned the simply made floor-length gown worn by the bride. The cowl neck fell softly into folds and the three-quarter length sleeves fell full to slightly below the elbow. Matching brown velvet fashioned the small turban and her other accessories were brown. She wore a corsage of Tallis man roses. The bride is a graduate of Booneville High School and Indiana University, where she was a member of Phi Beta Pi, national college sorority. She is a member of Tri Kappa Sorority, affiliated with the Booneville Chapter, and the Fort Wayne College Club. Mrs. Welty is an instructor of Latin and English at South Side High School.

Mrs. Roy Welty.

Mr. Welty practices law in Fort Wayne and is the present secretary of the Allen County Bar Association.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 918 West Berry Street. A smart costume combining a tweed skirt with a beaver coat was worn by the bride for traveling. The tweed of the skirt matches the tweed which lines the three-quarter length swagger coat.

Teacher, Attorney Wed Today

Thursday, Nov. 29, 1934

Miss Grace Mellen, 331 West Main Street, daughter of Mrs. Mary(?) Mellen of Bloomerville (?) and Mr. Bing Welty (?), 821 West Washington Boulevard, son of the Rev. A. D. Welty of Lima, O, were married in a traditional ceremony at the Plymouth Congregational Church. Rev. B (?) Charles M. Hightower ... ceremony in the presence of the ... families. The couple were unattended.

A becoming shade of brown velvet fashioned the simply made floor-length gown worn by the bride. The cowl neck fell softly into folds and the three-quarter length sleeves fell to slightly below the elbow. Matching brown velvet fashioned the small turban and her other accessories were brown. She wore a shoulder corsage of Tallis man roses. The bride is a graduate of Booneville High School; and Indiana University, where she is a member of Phi Beta Pi, national college sorority. She is a member of Tri Kappa Sorority, Affiliated with the Booneville Chapter, and the Fort Wayne College Club. Miss Welty is an instructor in Latin and English at Northside High School.

Mr. Welty practices law in Fort Wayne and is the present secretary of the Allen County Bar Association. Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be home at 918 West Berry Street. A smart costume combining a tweed skirt with a beaver coat was worn by the bride for traveling. The tweed of the skirt matches the tweed which lines the three-quarter length swagger coat.

Adams County Historical Museum

1934 Scrapbook, image 86

Transcribed by Judy Canterbury

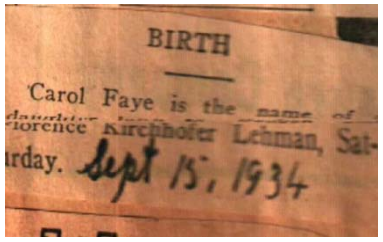

BIRTHS

Mon., Sept 10, 1934

Earl McBride and Dorothy H Ripley of near Rockford, Ohio are the parents of a baby boy, Reginald Duane, since Saturday.

Ralph C. and Alta Mae Yaney Smitley of Jefferson township are the parents of a baby girl since Friday.

Levi and Mabel Merriam Amstutz are the parents of a baby boy, Joseph Lee, born Saturday morning.

BIRTH

Carol Faye is the name of the daughter born to Florence Kirchhofer Lehman Saturday, September 15, 1934.

BUILDING NEW HOME

Sept 10, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Norr who were married recently are having a new home constructed on the Wm. Norr farm, southeast of town. Calvin Liechty, father of Mrs. Norr is in charge of the construction.

Adams County Historical Museum
1934 Scrapbook, image 86
Transcribed by Judy Canterbury