JUNE MARTIN BRIDE SUNDAY

Weds Woodrow Thrapp at Parsonage Here; To Live at Muncie

Miss June Martin, well-known local young lady, became the bride of Woodrow Thrapp in a simple but impressive ceremony performed at 8 o'clock Sunday morning at the parsonage of the West Missionary church, Rev. Chris Gerig, pastor of the church, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Raymond Beer and Miss Willodean Ellenberger attended the couple.

For the occasion the bride wore a gown of white taffeta, with accessories to match. Her attendant wore a dress of pink crepe, with fur trimming.

The groom wore a light tan suit and his attendant a light gray suit.

A reception was held Sunday noon at the home of the bride's mother.

Mrs. Thrapp is a daughter of Barbara Martin of this place. She is an accomplished young lady and a talented musician. She graduated from the Berne high school with the class of 1932 and has been employed as a piano instructor.

Mr. Thrapp is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Thrapp of Missouri. He graduated from the Nevada high school at Nevada, Mo., and attended Kansas State Teachers College at Pittsburg, Kansas. He is employed as a linotype operator at the Muncie Evening Press. He was formerly (cut off)
