YOUTH HURT IN ACCIDENT

Sylvan Habegger Meets With Mishap Monday Evening

Sylvan Habegger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Habegger of north of town, received several cuts on his arm and bruises in an automobile accident Monday evening. The mishap occurred just east of the Dan Kaehr home, at the intersection of the north and south road running past the D. J. Mazelin farm, and the east and west road.

Habegger was driving the Ford owned by his brother, Martin Habegger. He was going south and failed to see the end of the road in time to make the turn successfully. The car turned over and was badly damaged. It was towed to the Main Street Filling Station.

Members of the Kaehr family heard the crash and hurried to Habegger's assistance. He was just climbing out of the wreckage when they came to the scene. He was brought to the office of local doctors where his injuries were dressed.

It is considered almost a miracle the the youth escaped without serious injuries as the car was almost demolished.
