

1936 Scrapbook, image 072

(Handwritten: Monday, Nov. 2, 1936)

VERA SCHWARTZ BRIDE SUN. OF WARREN LEHMAN

Local Young Couple Married at Dunkirk Sunday Afternoon

Two well known local young people, Miss Vera Schwartz and Warren Lehman, were united in marriage Sunday. The wedding occurred Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Rev. Edward Lehman, at Dunkirk. Rev. Lehman is a cousin of the groom. The double ring ceremony was observed. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Liechty attended the couple.

For the occasion, the bride was pretty in a gown of ankle-length white satin, with fingertip veil, and white footwear. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid wore an ankle length dress of pink net over satin, with white footwear, and pink picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Lehman wore a blue suit, and Mr. Liechty appeared in oxford grey.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Liechty on west of town. He is a graduate of the Berne high school with the class of 1934, and is employed at the Berne Electric Shop. Until recently, he was employed at the Sinclair Service Station.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. R. Schwartz of northwest of Berne, and is a graduate of the Monroe high school with the class of 1936. She is employed at the Book Store here, and was formerly employed at the Cloverleaf Creameries at Decatur.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and then the couple left on a short wedding trip to southern Indiana.

The newly weds will be at home with the groom's parents.

(Handwritten: Monday, Sept. 14, 1936)

LIECHTY RITES HELD THURSDAY

Linn Grove Man Dies Suddenly Last Tuesday

Chris Liechty, aged 61, of Linn Grove, was found dead Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock on the front porch of his bachelor home in that town. Death was caused by angina pectoris.

He had been working in his garden and had gone to the porch to rest. He was discovered by Mrs. Bud Pease who in turn called Frank Nussbaum. He had lived in and near Linn Grove for the past 20 years and had lived all of his life in the county.

He was born in Hartford County, on March 6, 1875, the son of John and Catherine Liechty. He was never married.

The deceased was employed in stone quarrying near Linn Grove for many years, having retired only recently.

Three brothers and three sisters, survive. They are Emil of Linn Grove; Amos of Illinois; William at home; Mrs. Albert Lugibihl and Mrs. John Reichenbach, Bluffton, Ohio; Catherine at home.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the home of the brother, Emil, in Linn Grove and burial was made in the M.R.E. Cemetery. The Rev. Leo McKinley, pastor of the Linn Grove Christian church, officiated.

(Handwritten: Monday, Sept. 14, 1936)

DEATH TAKES DECATUR MAN

Charles Voglewede, 62, Trustee of Hospital, Dies Saturday Night

Charles Voglewede, aged 62, prominent retired shoe merchant of Decatur, and well-known business and civic leader, died at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night at the Adams county hospital. Death was caused by an infection in the blood stream following an operation for appendicitis a week ago Sunday.

Mr. Voglewede was a trustee of the Adams county Memorial hospital, and treasure and director of the Citizen's Telephone Company. He was a member of one of the pioneer families of Adams County.

Surviving are the wife and eight children.

The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the St. Mary's Catholic church at Decatur.

Adams County Historical Museum

1936 Scrapbook, image 72

Transcribed by Karin King