

1936 Scrapbook, image 107

(Handwritten: Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1936)

ZEHR

Mary Zehr, aged 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zehr, of Milan Township, died of heart disease Monday at the home of Peter Yoder, near Harlan. Surviving are the parents, two sisters and three brothers. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. at the parents' home. Burial in the Amish Cemetery.

(Handwritten: Thursday, December 10, 1936)

MRS. WINTEREGG RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Myrtle Winteregg is Bride of George Dyson of Petroleum

Announcement was made here today of the marriage of Mrs. Myrtle Winteregg of this community, to George Dyson, of Petroleum. The wedding took place Saturday, Nov. 28, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Hillsdale, Mich. Rev. Moore, pastor of the United Brethren church officiated.

Mr. Dyson is well known here. He is engaged in the lumber business at Petroleum, where the couple are now residing in a newly furnished home.

(Handwritten: December 24, 1936)

MARRIED 51 YEARS

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Houk, 2715 South Hanna Street, took place 51 years ago today and on Christmas Day the couple will celebrate the anniversary with a family dinner at their home at noon, following which they will be at home to their friends informally throughout the afternoon and evening. The two daughters of the couple, Mrs. Bertha Grodrian, 3124 South Hanna Street, and Miss Francis Houk, who resides at home, will assist with the celebration. The Messrs. D. H. Grodrian, of this city, and J. Addison Grodrian, of Chicago, grandsons of the celebrants, and their great-granddaughter, Sylvia Joan Grodrian, also will be present.

(Cut off)

...Miss Sarah J. Youse, of Hoagland. The couple have lived at their present address for the past 34 years. Mr. Houk whose birthplace was Adams County, has been broadcasting with the Old Time Religious Programs for the past several years.

(Handwritten: Thursday, December 10, 1936)

SHIPS CRATES OF ORANGES OUT OF OWN GROVE

Sol. J. Schwartz, of Phoenix, Arizona, formerly of this community, this week shipped a crate of oranges to relatives in this community. Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz picked the oranges from trees in their own grove.

Mr. Schwartz is associated with the Southern Pacific railroad, and has a very promising grove of citrus fruits on his farm close to Phoenix.

(Handwritten: Thursday, Dec. 31, 1936)

SHOWER MRS. ROBERT STRIKER

Mrs. Robert Striker, formerly Miss Leone Stauffer, was completely taken by surprise this afternoon when a number of her girl friends met at the home of her parents west of town to spend the afternoon with her. The girls showered her with miscellaneous gifts. The rest of the time was spent in a social manner.

Those present were Dortha and Mary Kathryn Bentz, Elois Amstutz, Jeanette and Betty Meshberger, Naomi Studler, Beulah Augsburg, Berneice Amstutz, and the honored guest, Mrs. Striker. Mrs. Thomas O'Donnel of Frankfurt, Mrs. Ray Thomas of Bluffton, and Mrs. Earl Haskill of Geneva, who are visiting at the Stauffer home today, and Mrs. Elroy Stauffer were in attendance.

(Handwritten: Friday, Nov. 27, 1936)

DIVORCED ONE DAY, MARRIES AGAIN THE NEXT

Jack R. Parr, formerly of this community, now of Ft. Wayne, was granted a divorce from his first wife last Wednesday. She was formerly Miss Lavera Habegger of east of Berne.

Parr was issued a marriage license the same day he received his divorce from his first wife, and is reported to have been married on Thanksgiving day to Miss Cornelia Luciu, of 2418 Graeter St., Fort Wayne. She is an employe of the Magnavox Co., while Parr is a truck driver.

Adams County Historical Museum

1936 Scrapbook, image 107

Transcribed by Karin King