

1936 Scrapbook, image 115

(Handwritten: Thursday, Dec. 24, 1936)

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN IS DEAD

Mrs. Susan Inniger Kreichbaum Dies Near Bluffton, Ohio

Mrs. Susan Inniger Kreichbaum, aged 76, wife of Peter Kreichbaum, living 8 miles east of Bluffton, O., died at her home Tuesday afternoon, according to word received by relatives here. Mrs. Kreichbaum had been ill for more than two months, suffering from heart disease. Pneumonia set in recently.

Mrs. Kreichbaum's aged husband who has been an invalid for 12 years, is also critically ill and his death is expected any time.

Mrs. Kreichbaum was born in Switzerland, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Inniger. She resided in this community for many years, but moved with her family to Ohio around 1900.

Surviving are the husband and three daughters. Two sons and all her brothers and sisters are deceased.

Mrs. Kreichbaum was an aunt of Abe Inniger of north of town, being a sister to Mr. Inniger's father.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Jenera, Ohio Lutheran Church.

(Handwritten: Monday, Dec. 28, 1936)

DOUBLE FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kreichbaum Buried at Jenera, Ohio

Double funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Jenera, O., Lutheran church, for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kreichbaum. Mrs. Kreichbaum died last Tuesday, and Mr. Kreichbaum died Saturday morning at 3 o'clock. He had been an invalid for 12 years. He was 82 years of age.

The couple lived near Bluffton, Ohio, and Mrs. Kreichbaum formerly lived in this community. She was formerly Susan Inniger and was an aunt of Abe Inniger north of town.

Several from this community attended the double funeral Sunday.

(Handwritten: Monday, Dec. 28, 1936)

FORMER LOCAL TEACHER WEDS

Miss Lois Slone is Bride of Ralph Purvis on Christmas

Friday at 12 o'clock noon occurred the wedding of Miss Lois Slone, former local music supervisor, to Ralph Purvis, of Tipton. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother at Alexandria. The bride has been teaching at Tipton the last several years.

Mr. Purvis is engaged as a salesman and the couple will be at home in Los Angeles within the next several months.

(Handwritten: Friday, Nov. 27, 1936)

KNOW YOUR SCHOOL TEACHERS

Miss Martha Schug, who has taught in the Berne schools for a number of years, is respected and held in high esteem by all who know her.

She is a member and regular attendant of the First Missionary Church.

Miss Martha Schug was born in French township, the daughter of Chas. C. and Katherine Stauffer Schug. Her parents moved to Berne when she was a small child. She received all her grade and high school education in the Berne schools.

She was graduated from Berne High School under Supt. B. A. Winans.

Miss Schug has been a teacher in all the eight grades. She has taught two years in Wabash twp.; one year in Clinton, Ind.; four years in Poplar Grove (Consolidated School), Wells (cut off)...county, She has taught in the Berne Schools for Superintendents B. A. Winans, K. B. Kizer, F. D. Huff, and C. E. Beck. Since 1930 she has again been teaching in the Berne schools for Supt. E. M. Webb.

She was graduated from Indiana State Normal School, Terre Haute, Ind., from a four-year course. Since graduation she has also done post-graduate work in the same school.

In the fall of 1928, she entered Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Ill., and was graduated from the General Bible Course in the summer of 1930.

Miss Schug enjoys reading and traveling.

(Handwritten: Thursday, Dec. 24, 1936)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanni and son Ernest moved from their farm home five miles southeast of town, in with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hanni, of East Water St. Mr. and Mrs. Hanni will move into their own property, formerly owned by Fannie Trout, in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lehman moved from the Willard Baumgartner farm to the Hanni farm, which Mr. Lehman purchased.

LaMar Winteregg, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Winteregg of East Franklin St., underwent an emergency operation for the removal of his appendix yesterday. He was taken to the Adams County Memorial Hospital at Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Inniger and daughter Susan and Homer Inniger motored to the Peter Kreichbaum home, near Bluffton, Ohio. Mrs. Kreichbaum, an aunt of Mr. Inniger, died Tuesday, and Mr. Kreichbaum is also critically ill.

(Handwritten: January 14, 1937)

TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Phillip D. Nussbaum of Monroe township, was taken into custody by Sheriff Dallas Brown at Decatur Tuesday evening. He was taken to the Adams county jail and will undergo a sanity inquest.

(Handwritten: Monday, December 28, 1936)

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Habegger and family and Miss Ella M. Schwartz visited at the Menno and Amos Basinger homes near Bluffton, Ohio, Saturday.

Those from this community who attended the double funeral Sunday at the Lutheran Church at Jenera, Ohio, for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kreichbaum, were Mr. and Mrs. Abe Inniger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Inniger, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Inniger, the Misses Mary and Wilma Inniger, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Inniger, Elmer Inniger and Mr. and Mrs. David L. Habegger.

Jacob M. Neuenschwander is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hales and Rev. Daniel Augsburg, near Dayton, Ohio, at present.

Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Meckstroth and sons of Vera Cruz, left today to spend their Christmas Vacation visiting with friends in Ohio.

A basket dinner was enjoyed Christmas day at the home of Mrs. John J. Hilty, west of Berne. Those present were Mrs. Anna Amstutz and family, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Habegger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Habegger and family, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Schwartz (cut off)

(Handwritten: Thursday, January 14, 1937)

FORMER LOCAL TEACHER WEDS

Louise Grossnickle Weds Kwang Sup Yum, Native of Korea

Announcement has been received here of the wedding of Miss Louis Grossnickle, former local high school teacher, to Kwang Sup Yum. The wedding took place Jan. 2, at the Church of the Redeemer at Chicago.

Miss Grossnickle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grossnickle, of North Manchester, and taught school here last year and the previous year. She is now enrolled as a student at Chicago University.

Kwang Sup Yum is professor of International Relations at Chicago University. He is a native of Korea and has been in this country for quite a number of years. The couple will reside at Chicago.

(Handwritten: Thursday, Nov. 19, 1936)

KNOW YOUR SCHOOL TEACHERS

Miss Glennys Arnold, who came to Berne this year as an instructor in the Junior and Senior High School, is already a favorite among the high school students, and she has won many friends with her pleasant personality. She is teaching Home Economics, English, Latin and Physical Education.

Miss Arnold is a member of the Decatur United Brethren Church and a member of the Epsilon Delta Tau. Miss Arnold's father is not living, and she lives with her mother in Kirkland township.

Miss Arnold was born in Washington township, Adams county, the daughter of William and Sarah Arnold. She attended district school up to the eighth grade, and attended Kirkland high school from which she was graduated.

Immediately after graduation she attended Ball State Teacher's College, from which she received her A. B. degree. She majored in English, Latin and Home Economics. This summer she attended North Manchester College where she worked toward her Physical Education license, and which she hopes to complete next summer. She has attended school almost every summer since receiving her degree.

After received her A. B. degree, she taught three years in the Petroluem high school. She then went to Kirkland, where she taught six years, and this fall she accepted the position as instructor in the Berne schools.

Miss Arnold's hobby is reading.

(Handwritten: Monday, Dec. 28, 1936)

FUNERAL HELD

Funeral services for Ruth Alice Bixler, 9-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bixler, who died here Thursday afternoon, were held Sunday afternoon at the Cross Reformed church, with burial in the M.R.E. Cemetery. The child was ill several days with pneumonia, the fever mounting as high as 108 degrees. The parents, one brother, one sister, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bixler and Mrs. Agnes Kattman survive.

(Handwritten: Thursday, March 18, 1937)

NEW ARRIVALS

Glen A. and Wilda P. Riley Ruppert, of Decatur, are the parents of a daughter, Shirley Anne, born last night.

Dan and Lena Cook Teeter of Wabash township are the parents of a son born Tuesday.

A daughter was born to Clinton and Sylvia Stucky Dubach of west of Berne on Tuesday.

Adams County Historical Museum

1936 Scrapbook, image 115

Transcribed by Karin King