

1937 SCRAPBOOK, IMAGE 012

(Handwritten: 1936)

EMILIE CRIST IS BRIDE

Former Supt. at Hospital Weds W. J. Archbold of Decatur

Decatur, March 12 - The marriage of Miss Emilie Crist of Woodburn and W. J. Archbold of this city was solemnized Sunday afternoon in Elkhart at the home of Rev. Sommerville Light, former Decatur pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fuelling of Woodburn were the attendants.

Mrs. Archbold was formerly superintendent of the Adams county Memorial hospital and resided here a number of years. (Cut off)

**

(Handwritten: Tuesday, March 10, 1936)

MENNONITE BISHOP CLAIMED BY DEATH

John Schmucker, Retired Farmer of Milan Twp., To Be Buried Thursday

John Schmucker, a bishop of the old order of Mennonites and a retired farmer of Milan Township, Allen County, died of paralysis Monday at 1:30 p.m. at his home on State Road No. 14 in Milan Township. He has been an invalid the last two years.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 9 a.m. (sun time) at the residence. Burial in the Amish Cemetery west of Harlan.

Mr. Schmucker was born in Howard County, Indiana, and came to Allen County 62 years ago. He was married to Rosina Graber 62 years ago. Surviving are the widow; six sons, Peter, Christ, John, Daniel, Noah and Samuel Schmucker all of (cut off)

Adams County Historical Museum

1937 Scrapbook, image 012

Transcribed by Karin King