

1937 SCRAPBOOK, IMAGE 020

26 Aug 1937 based on context

Another Group of Attractive Tots

Photo: [redacted] Lou Myers (I think it is Ilene)

(Ilene) Lou Meyers, aged seven months, is a rougish little bell [redacted] twinkling eyes and a happy [redacted]. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Myers of Berne. Such a little charmer would be [redacted] to have many admirers and [redacted] Lou's votes are already moving up in a way to indicate she [redacted] enjoy the assistance and good [redacted] of many followers of the Baby Election.

Photo: Darlene Rose Hear

This little tot is as sweet as a chip right off the Old Rock Candy mountain.

She is Darlene Rose Hear, aged 22 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hear of Berne.

Darlene is a potential winner in any juvenile beauty show, and her many local admirers are planning to put her over the top in the Baby Election.

Photo: Pearl Mae Huser

Folks out along R. F. D. 6, Decatur, will enjoy this picture.

It is the likeness of pretty little Pearl Mae Huser, aged two and one-half years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Huser of that address.

Pearl Mae is a popular Baby Election candidate, and her boosters are rallying to her cause in a way that should plenty of votes for her.

Photo: Judith Dee Ryf

Judith Dee Ryf registers expectancy in a charming manner. What is she expecting? Votes, of course, and she will get them, too, for she has a "way" that would be hard to resist.

This chubby, smiling little sweetheart is five months old. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ryf, R. F. D. 2, Berne, and a popular little citizen in her neighborhood.

Adams County Historical Museum

1937 Scrapbook, image 020

Transcribed by Autumn Callahan