

1937 SCRAPBOOK, IMAGE 026

(Handwritten: Thursday, August 26, 1937)

(Photo) All smiles and good cheer is Paul Edward Reichert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reichert of R.F.D. 2, Berne.

Healthy and vigorous, Paul is a reasonable chap who makes a good impression wherever he goes. He is two and one-half years old and you can depend on it that he will play an important part in the Review's Baby Election.

(Photo) Quite grown up is Audrey Kaye Whitehurst, aged three and one-half years. Audrey has a personality that is distinctly 'different.' She is a fine little girl, pretty and intelligent, with blue eyes and blonde hair.

Audrey Kaye is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Whitehurst of Berne, and the choice of many local people for a favored place in the Review's Personality Babies Election.

(Photo) Iris Pauline Cline is a sweet and attractive miss, and not usually as serious as in this picture, either.

Iris Pauline is seventeen months old, and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Cline of Geneva. This tot has issued a blanket invitation to all her friends to send in their votes for her, and since there are so many of them, she certainly ought to get lots of votes.

(Photo) Shirley Ann Meyer is the charming subject of this personality "portrait."

She is one year old and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Meyer, R. F. D. 1, Geneva.

Shirley Ann is a lighthearted little sweetheart with a radiant smile always on tap. No wonder so many folks announce that they will cast their Baby Election votes for Shirley.

Adams County Historical Museum

1937 Scrapbook, image 026

Transcribed by Karin King