

(Handwritten date: Monday, April 12, 1937)

SOCIETY NEWS

Better Homes Club

Mrs. Martin Huffman, assisted by Mrs. Floyd Johnson, Mrs. Bill Crist and Mrs. Pryor Gilbert, entertained the Better Homes Economics Club at the former's home, Thursday evening, April the 8th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. D. J. Schwartz, after which the new club songs were sung and the creed repeated.

Mrs. John Floyd led in prayer after which the roll call was responded to with house cleaning hints. Mrs. Roy Price gave the history of the club.

The leaders, Mrs. William Stucky and Mrs. Roy Price, gave a very interesting lesson on "Fix It", which reminded most of us of a great many things that will need fixing this spring.

A dainty lunch of fruit salad topped with whipped cream, cup cakes and coffee was served to the fifty-nine members and guests present.

The visitors included Mrs. Lucy Habegger, Mrs. Metta Steury, Mrs. Clara Dolch, Mrs. Merle Sivits, Mrs. William H. Spurgeon, Mrs. Vera Rupert, Mrs. Forest Andrews, Mrs. Andrew Brewster, Mrs. Roy McDaniels, Mrs. Doyl Huffman, Eleanor Schwartz, Betty Brewster, Dinah Sue and Donnah Lou Crist.

Five new members were added to the club, namely Mrs. Lucy Habegger, Mrs. Metta Steury, Mrs. Roy McDaniels, Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Andrews.

(Handwritten date: Monday, April 26, 1937)

FRESHMAN NEWS

Facts of our freshman in poetry form:

-One of our best ball players is Ralph Hannie
Pitch those balls? Oh boy, can he!

-Norris Lehman, "Civie" for short
Just call him that and hear him snort.

-Esther Sprunger, always late
Can't say she never had a date.

-Our other reporter is A. Steiner Junior
A swell feller, but then we should have said that sooner.

-Loris Steury another curly head
But his operation kept him in bed.

-When Emma Jane Sprunger is called on to recite
Just prepare yourself to listen all night.

-Dortha Ray quite the opposite
Is tall and also slender
With a voice so weak and tender.

-Alvin Nussbaum's funny jokes
Are good for laughs by country folks.

-Hubert Schnepp, a speedy guy
Is fed on buckwheat, country rye.

-Johnson, Mary Anna is her name
A freshman student of little fame,
But gets her lesson just the same.

-Doris Fricke's brains of two
Gets her lessons all anew.
And you'll find it's always true.

-Eugene Gilbert, tall and sturdy
Says that girls aren't so 'perty.'

-Howard Moser has such curly hair
That we wonder if it's rare
That only HE has curly hair.

(Handwritten dated: Monday, April 19, 1937)

FRESHMAN NEWS

Facts of our Freshman in poetry form
(continued from last week)

-Elmer Graber so tough and sound
Gets his lessons with leaps and bounds.

-Howard Flueckiger our fattest boy
Never plays with a baby's toys.

-Arveda Mazelin's smiles are always big
Because once she wore a wig. (Maybe in the old country)

-Eleanor Liechty, Arveda's best girl friend
And always will be until the end, end, end.

-Millard Schwartz quite full of fun

Likes hamburg-steak and a hot-dog bun.

-Juanita Parrish's wondering thoughts
Are never found and never wrought.

-Frederick Oliver is awfully sly
Yet he always gets caught by teacher's eyes.

-Franklin Oliver, Frederick's brother
Likes to fight when under cover. (Under the bed covers)

-Her name is found as Kathrine Hook
Who catches fishies by the brook.

-Naomi Zuercher, oh, so busy
As use to be the old tin-lizzy.

-The smallest fellow Jim Yoder is
But when playing ball just see him whiz!

-Ada Marie and Sprunger too
Sticks out her tongue when asked "What are two and two?"

-Virginia Schwartz so full of pleasure
By her heart you'll find her treasure.

-Ireta Longenberger a freshman lassie is
You'll see she has a headache when Sprunger gives a quiz.

-Ruth Hurst who studies music and art
Just thinks she can't from the boys depart.

-Warren Miller who's at school half the time
Wouldn't tell us how to make this rhyme.

-Vernon Neuenschwander is full of fun
His slogan is "I'll take some meat on my bun."

-Vera Moser, so shy, pretty and sweet,
Has a smile for whom ever she chances to meet.

-Ruth Liechty, who came from No. Nine
Has specks that never lost their shine.

-A Moser boy by the name of Roger,
Says "I'll be President when I get larger."

-Kathleen Harvey so sweet and shy

Though when she was little she used to cry.

-Her name is Waneta McKean

She always looks so neat and clean.

Adams County Historical Museum

1937 Scrapbook, image 0036

Transcribed by Karin King