PALMER MOSER TO MANAGE ORPHAN'S HOME FARM AT FLANAGAN, ILLINOIS

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Moser and family, who live on the Peter N. Moser farm northwest of Berne, will leave this community within a few weeks to go to Flanagan, Ill. Mr. Moser will become farm manager of the Defenseless Orphan's Home at Flanagan, and will also assist his brother, Chester Moser, in managing the orphanage. Chester Moser has been manager of the orphanage for six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Moser and their three children will probably leave here some time in August or before school starts if at all possible.

Raymond Moser, who is now engaged in the hatchery business at Bluffton, will probably move on the farm and take care of the the Moser homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Peter N. Moser will continue to reside on their farm.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Miss Dorothy Lehman is Bride of Andrew J. Losier, Jr.

A lovely church wedding was solemnized at the First Mennonite church here Friday evening when Miss Dorothy Leona Lehman became the bride of Andrew J. Losier, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The wedding was attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends.

Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer of Dallas, Texas, president of the Dallas Theological Seminary, where Mr. Losier graduated, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Dr. Chafer conducted meetings at the Mennonite church last week.

Miss Helen Lehman, sister of the bride, and Clair Hitz, of Harrisburg, Pa. attended the couple. Ira and Clifton Lehman, brothers of the bride, also attended them.

The church was decorated with fernery, lilacs and candelabras.

Miss Sybilla Sprunger presided at the organ and played several numbers, after which Paul Beckwith played a piano solo, Liszt's "Liebestraum". Mr. Beckwith and Miss Elda Flueckiger then sang a vocal duet, "Follow Me." Miss Flueckiger also played a violin solo "At Dawning." Mr. Beckwith then sang "Because" and this was followed by another organ solo. The bridal march from Lohengrin was played before the ceremony and the wedding march from Mendelssohn was played after the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a gown of white lace over white satin, with a long train. Seed pearls and orange blossoms decorated her head. She wore white satin sandals and carried a bouquet of white gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink organdie, with full sleeves. Her footwear was white and she carried a bouquet of American beauty roses and sweet peas.

The groom wore a suit of oxford grey and the best man appeared in dark blue.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lehman of this place. She graduated from the Berne high school with the class of 1929. She attended Wheaton College for two years, in 1930 and 1931, and during the past year, she attended the Moody Bible Institute at Chicago. She is well known throughout this community.

Mr. Losier is a son of Andrew A. Losier of Pittsburgh, Pa. He graduated from Wheaton College in 1934, and on May 11, 1937, he graduated from the Dallas, Texas Theological Seminary with the Th?? B. degree. He is a minister.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple then left on a short wedding trip to Argentine, Mich. The newlyweds will reside (cut off)
