Our Church Visitor

This booklet is a collection of abstracts from Our Church Visitor, a publication of St. Mark's Evangelical Church, New Albany, Indiana. It begins with the 1930 edition and goes thru 1934. I have tried to extract any information that would be of interest to someone doing genealogical research. It will be noticed that there is more information for some years than others. In every issued I transcribed important events, such as births, deaths, marriages and birthdays. In some issues I included more items.

I have included every name index at the end.

I hope you enjoy the book as much as I enjoyed abstracting the information.

The Table of Contents and volume headers are clickable. Clicking on the volume header takes you back to the Table of Contents. The link at the top and bottom of the index takes you back to the last place viewed in the Abstracts.

Honor Roll

Last year it was decided that in the December issue of the "Visitor" should be printed a roll of the officers or teachers of our Bible School who attended all of the meetings of this organization. Later it was decided that in order to be fair to all, the entire attendance list should be published. For obvious reasons we would rather not publish the entire list.

There were ten meetings held, and here is the record of attendance:

TEN MEETINGS: Mrs. Jos. Enslinger, Miss Alinde Fleischer, Miss Rose Gueltig, Frederick Loheide, Miss Irma Maetschke, Miss Irma Utrecht, Rev. F. A. Meusch, Miss Frieda Michel, Mrs. John Wrege, John L. Wrege.

NINE MEETINGS: Mrs. L. Brod, John Enslinger, Mrs. Fred W. Goetsch, Miss Charlotte Loheide, Sherman Smith, Miss Roselle Stocker, Mrs. Oscar Stocker.

EIGHT MEETINGS: Miss Helena Meusch, Miss Mildred Sinex.

SEVEN MEETINGS: Fred W. Goetsch, Frederick P. Meusch, Miss Ella Orth, Miss Hilda Tscheulin.

SIX MEETINGS: Mrs. Henry Braeutigam, Miss Marguerite Braeutigam, Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Etelka Rockenbach.

FIVE MEETINGS: Miss Lorraine Brod, Mrs. George O. Lopp, Mrs. F. A. Meusch, Mrs. C. B. Rosenbarger.

FOUR MEETINGS: Miss Leonora Braeutigam, Mrs. Clifford Belch, Mrs. John Gadiant, Gilbert G. Hoffman, Miss Wilma Huncilman, Mrs. Virgil Leist, Miss Clara Oltman, Miss Amelia Orth.

Our Church Visitor

St. Mark's Evangelical Church, New Albany, Indiana

THREE MEETINGS: Miss Ruth Braeutigam, Miss Rose Dienes, Clarence Feiock, Jr., Mrs. E. A. Flocken, Miss Lucille Keller, Miss Margaret Smith, Mrs. Henry Utrecht, Mrs. W. S. Woodside.

TWO MEETINGS: Mrs. Albert DeLong, Mrs. Dan Ehalt, Mrs. Harold Fleischer, Harold Fleischer, Mrs. C. Garrison, Mrs. Carl Hasenstab, Miss Dolores Lang, Claude B. Rosenbarger, Miss Irma Steinhauer.

ONE MEETING: Dan Ehalt, Mrs. W. A. Gadiant, W. A. Gadiant, Miss Barbara Hahn, Ralph Morris, Mrs. Albert Reed, Russell Sinex, Miss Malinde Spatig, Mrs. E. H. Steinhauer.

Like all lists, this one also does not give a fair picture of the faithfulness of the teachers and officers. Some of those listed above, who have attended only a few meetings, have only recently been added to the teaching staff; others were prevented from attending because of illness, or were otherwise unavoidably absent. There must always allowance be made for such unforeseen occurrences which might spoil an otherwise perfect attendance.

Sunday School Attendance Record

We are always glad when the time comes to publish the record of those who attended the sessions of our Bible School without missing even one Sunday. We have sessions of the Bible School every Sunday in the year, and no excuse for absence is accepted excepting death in the immediate family. If absent from our city, an attendance card from some other Bible School must be presented, if the record is to remain unbroken. So it really means something to have a record. We know of schools which keep record also, but they excuse absence because of sickness, etc. it sometimes seems hard to deny the excuse of sickness, but if an unbroken record is to be maintained, it must be unbroken altogether. So when we say the following have attended the sessions of the Bible School every Sunday for as many years as it may be it really means they were present for that length of time.

One Year

Mrs. Virgil Leist, Palmer Kitterman, Edward Walker, Henry Kitterman, Frederick Leist, Norris Utrecht, Alberta Terry, Carol Drake, Evelyn Munzer, Mrs. Anna Peyton, Mrs. B. F. LaDuc, Norma Leist, Jennie E. Wiseman, Herbert Orth, Kenneth Grether, Mrs. Henry Utrecht.

Christening Service

Easter Sunday afternoon we conducted our regular Christening service in church. It was a wonderful service, which was attended by a large number of the friends of the children's parents. The church was filled when all was ready to begin the impressive service.

Thirteen children were consecrated to the Lord in this service, and it was a never-to-be-forgotten sight when the parents of these children, together with the sponsors, had grouped themselves around the altar. Of course we must all remember that with Baptism only the beginning is made, and that it is the sacred duty of the parents to keep the solemn promise they made — to bring up their children in the fear of the Lord and to teach them to walk in His ways. Where the parents either cannot or do not attend to this sacred duty, it becomes the obligation of the sponsors to do so.

The following is the list of those who received the sacrament of Baptism:

Miss Grace Bache and Mr. Fred Duer acted as attendants. the Christian ministry. He also took a post-graduate course in Lane Seminary.

The Reverend Kuenzler found his first field of labor in Jackson, Ohio, and later served congregations in South Webster, Ohio and Middletown, Ohio. From this latter place he came to New Albany, where for four years he ministered to the needs of St. Mark's congregation. Here he was united in marriage with Mrs. Emma Zinsmeister Zollman. Leaving New Albany, he went to Baltimore, Md., then to Kenton, Ohio, and finally to New Orleans, La.

Failing health compelled him to give up the ministry, temporarily, as he hoped, and he went to Redondo Beach, California, in search of health. After a short stay there he continued on to Tucson, Arizona, where he was called home on September 30th. He is survived by his wife, a stepson, and a large circle of friends.

The body was brought to New Albany for burial. Services were held on October 4th and interment was in Fairview Cemetery. The pastors W. L. Krueger, W. A. Scheer, P. F. Hausmann, and M. Baas, also took part in the service.

Rev. Kuenzler was a faithful servant of his master; an able pulpit orator and a friend to man. His earnest endeavor at all times was to win souls for the Kingdom, and to that end he bent his energies. He has arrived at the end of his earthly ministry, and is now united with the great group of those who stand in eternal worship before the Great White Throne.

HISTORY, ANCIENT AND MODERN

What Do You Know About Your Church ?

The first child baptised in our congregation was Louise Wilhelmine Hully, born April 24th, 1837.

The first two persons to be united in matrimony were John Henry Boldt and Barbara Keller, on December 31st, 1837.

The first class of children was confirmed on April 29th, 1838, and consisted of Catherina Wilhelmine Dorothea Evers, Catherina Wild, Barbara Naegeln, Eva Margaretha Orth, and Elizabeth Catherina Schroeder.

St. Mark's Evangelical Church, New Albany, Indiana

The first funeral conducted was that of Henry Schollerer, infant child of George Schollerer and his wife.

Among the first articles purchased for use of the congregation in 1837 were a communion set consisting of one pewter tankard, one pewter cup, and one small pewter plate; a china Baptismal Basin; a china water pitcher; a white cotton table cloth for the Communion Table, and a large, leather-bound Church Record Book.

The latter is still in existence.

A lot for erecting the first church building was purchased in 1842, on the east side of State street, being the third sixty foot lot north of Oak street. The lot was 60 by 130 in size and cost $250.00. See if you can locate it sometime when you are going out State street.

The average attendance in Sunday School during 1869 was about 160, and in the parochial school it was about 130.

The pulpit in our present church building was originally high up in the middle of the rear wall, and was reached by a flight of steps, one from each side. Over the pulpit was placed a canopy. The choir and organ were in the center of the balcony. From what is said about remodeling the church after the fire in 1886, we conclude that originally there were balconies on the west and east walls of the church also.

The fire, mentioned above, destroyed the roof and part of the side walls of the church on June 6th, 1886, a Sunday morning, while the congregation was assembled in worship.

The loss amounted to $10,000.00, over against which the congregation carried insurance amounting to only $1,000.00.

While the church was being rebuilt, the Sunday School and the congregation met in the Opera House, which was loaned for that purpose by the Hon. W. C. DePauw, without charge.

On Sunday, November 7th, 1886, the rededication of the church took place. The entire cost of repairs was $7,438.00, and was PAID IMMEDIATELY, LEAVING NO DEBT.

The parochial school was discontinued in 1872.

On September 11th, 1892 it was decided to conduct the night services in the English language.

In December, 1904 the Ladies' Aid Society published the famous "New Albany Cook Book", which is still much sought after.

On September 9th and 10th, 1903 the first convention of the Young People's Societies of the Indiana District was held in our church. Another convention of the same body was held here in 1914.

Mid-week Lenten services and special nightly services during Holy Week were inaugurated early in 1900.

The Brotherhood was organized October 18th, 1910.

In 1909 it was decided that the morning worship should hereafter be conducted alternately in the German and in the English languages.

In 1918 the use of the German language was discontinued entirely in our church services.

The new organ was dedicated on July 11th, 1915.

To our ladies goes the honor of having organized the First Red Cross Sewing Unit in New Albany. (During the World War.)

On November 6th, 1921 our church adopted the name "St. Mark's Evangelical Church."

Our church has had a choir since 1869, and perhaps earlier. But this is the first record to be found.

Our Sunday School originated in the year 1863 or 1864 with two classes, a class of boys and a class of girls, under twelve years old.

The first written notice concerning the Ladies' Aid Society is found in 1869, when it was called the "Women's Mission Society."

The Home Department of our Sunday School was organized on July 15th, 1915.

The Ladies' Auxiliary came into being on March 17th, 1908.

The congregation has entertained conferences at various times; the records showing that such meetings of the synodical bodies were held were in 1868; in 1879; in 1894; in 1911; and in 1924.

There is only one former pastor of our church now among the living, he being the Rev. C. W. Locher, D. D.

Rev. C. W. Locher, D. D.

The news of the death of the Rev. C. W. Locher, D. D., came as a shock to his large number of friends. He had been with us and preached to us on Sunday, March 4th, and seemed in his usual good health. When he returned to his home in Webster Groves, Missouri, he developed a cold, which later culminated in pneumonia. Even then there seemed hope for his recovery, but on April 2nd, he was called to his eternal rest.

Dr. Locher was a man of genial courtesy, who put his whole energy into the task which was his. His many friends found him a source of inspiration and help. He had been prominent in the work of the Synod, serving as chairman of the Foreign Mission Board, as President of two of our Districts, and finally as President of the Synod. It was in this latter office, especially, that he expended himself without stint, putting his duty before all else and placing his talents unreservedly and wholeheartedly into the service of his Church and his God.

Those who attended our worship service on March 4th will long remember the earnestness with which he made a plea for unfailing support of the Church, for faithfulness in service, and for loyalty unto death. This was the last sermon he preached.

We hold his memory sacred and view his life as one which was lived for his Master, knowing that his earthly labors being over, he is enjoying the rest prepared for the children of God.

Flowers

In our March issue we stated that flowers placed in the church on March 4th could not be credited to the donors, as we had received no information. Since then this information has been forthcoming, and we are glad to say that the Gueltig family placed these beautiful flowers on that date.

Cupid's Doings

March 31st marked the day on which one of our girls and the young man of her choice entered together the holy State of Matrimony. The beautiful ritual of our church was used, and so, in the presence of a number of friends and members of the contracting parties, Miss Thelma Shelton and Mr. James B. Miller were united as husband and wife. The church in which the ceremony was performed, was tastefully decorated. Mrs. Harry Brown, our organist, introduced the ceremony with a number of well chosen organ numbers. Miss Florence Losson and Mr. Roscoe Shelton acted as witnesses.

After the ceremony the happy young couple went to their new home in Louisville.

A very pretty marriage was solemnized on April 28th, when our Dr. Carl P. Schoen was united in holy-wedlock with Miss Gladys Fryer. The members of the families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends were present, with Miss Anna Mae Gross and Mr. Clarence Schoen acting as witnesses.

Dr. Schoen is one of "our boys" of whom we are all proud, and Miss Fryer is a charming young lady of Louisville. After returning from a short trip, the happy young couple will reside in our city.

Baptismal Service

In connection with the Children's Day service in church, we were privileged to conduct a Baptismal service. Miss Rosella Stocker and her able assistants of the Beginners' Department of our Sunday School had been instrumental in awakening the interest of a number of parents who brought their children to receive the Sacrament of Baptism. Had it not been for the prevailing epidemic of measles, the number of children presented would have been double what it was. The ceremony was impressive and was followed with much interest by all present in the congregation. The following children received Baptism:

Alice Marie, born July 2nd, 1919,

Virginia Lee, born December 18th, 1921,

Mary Jane, born January 19th, 1923, children of Charles Rowley and his wife, La Setta, nee Zimmerman. The mother was sponsor.

Oscar Alvin, son of Oscar Melcher and his wife, Mary Jane, nee Wilson, born September 1st, 1932, was baptised June 24th. Sponsors were the parents.

Cupid's Doings

The first of our June brides this year was Miss Lucile E. Keller, who on June 2nd was joined in holy wedlock with Mr. Frank L. Johnson of Louisville. The ceremony was performed in church in the presence of the members of the families of the contracting parties and a large number of friends. The church - tastefully decorated, was a fitting setting for the beautiful ritual of our church. Mrs. Harry Brown, our organist, presided at the organ, and Mrs. John Rasmussen rendered a number of vocal solos. Miss Gladys Green and Mr. Edward Johnson were the witnesses. Miss Keller that was, was a member of our choir, and since she and her husband are making their home in Louisville, we will miss her efficient aid

Another of our girls selected June as the month and the 6th as the date of her entering into wedded bliss. Miss Selma Munzer and Mr. George William Smith, also a member of our church, were united in marriage on the above date, the ceremony being performed in the parsonage in the presence of a number of friends. Miss Virginia Savage and Mr. Earl Hale acted as witnesses. We are glad to say that we shall not lose these young people from our membership, as they are making their new home in New Albany.

A very pretty marriage was solemnized on June 9th, when Miss Helen Park and Mr. Marston V. Beeler were joined as husband and wife. Since Mr. Beeler's business interests are in Indianapolis, the young couple is making its home in that city. Miss Dorothy Park and Mr. Jack Park, sister and brother of the bride, accompanied the young people to the parsonage and acted as witnesses.

On June 16th, the marriage of Miss Louise Wolf, another one of our girls, and Mr. Benjamin Cooper, of Hardinsburg, Indiana, was solemnized in the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Louis D. Wolf. A large number of friends of the contracting parties had gathered to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Layne, of Louisville, acted as witnesses. We are sorry to lose Mrs. Cooper from our midst, but since her husband is in business in Hardinsburg, it is but natural that the home of the young people should be in that place.

Good Bye—Good Luck

To Mrs. H. Graybrook, better known to us as "Betty" we say Good Bye and Good Luck.

Mrs. Graybrook came to us about 18 months ago and immediately became one of us. When Mrs. Brod left for California she graciously agreed to become teacher of the Delphian Class.

Sunday morning always found her in her place on time and well prepared for her task. She was a welcome addition not only to the Delphian Class but to the Sunday School as a whole. By leaving our city we have lost a faithful teacher.

We hated to say Good Bye, but we rejoice with both Mr. and Mrs. Graybrook. Mr. Graybrook has secured a position in Chicago and this will be their future home.

Welcome

Our old and loyal friend, Mrs. Brod is visiting her many friends in New Albany. We are glad to see her back and while in our city we know she will take her usual place in the Delphian Class.

Mrs. Brod says she is to stay but a short time but let us hope that she might change her mind and become one of us once more.

Truth Seekers

One of our members, Dorris Meyer left last week to attend Hanover College. We wish her success.

We are glad to have Kathleen Wolfe and Carrie Amacher back in class again. Both have been visiting out of the city.

Death's Toll

Felix Von Almen was born in New Albany on April 1st, 1857. In early childhood he suffered an accident which darkened his whole life. God finally released him on November 12th. He is survived by two sisters: Mrs. Louise Seiler and Mrs. Ida Leap, of Bolivar, Mo.; by one brother, Mr. Emil Von Almen, of Nashville, Tenn., other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held on November 14th, and burial was in Fairview Cemetery, the Rev. Boles, of the Church of Christ, Louisville, officiating in the absence of the pastor.

Harry V. Brown was born in New Albany, Indiana, January 28th, 1897. On April 20th, 1933 he was united in marriage with Miss Lorraine Brod. He was called out of this life on Sunday morning, November 18th, and is survived by his wife; by his mother, Mrs. Anna Brown; by five brothers, Messrs. John, Stewart, Clarence, William and Gilbert Brown; by other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held on November 20th, and burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

If no more than the above were said, we would be doing Harry an injustice. What his friends thought of him was proven by the immense throng of people who gathered at the funeral services and on the cemetery; by the mass of flowers sent by friends; by the tears which stood unashamed in the eyes of men and women, boys and girls. His genial smile, his ever-present good humor, even during the years of suffering and ill health, his willingness to help all who needed help, has reared for him a monument in the hearts of men and women which will endure when marble and stone have crumbled into dust. And, best of all, he gave freely of his glorious voice to beautify the services in our church and to elevate the listeners into a higher plane. Harry was liberal with the gift God had given him, and gave himself freely, even though at times under physical suffering. Anyone who ever heard him sing never forgot it, and was always the better for having heard. It is significant of his whole life that on the last Sunday he spent on earth, he not only came to church, but insisted in singing in his usual place in the choir, even though his condition was such that it cost him great suffering.

We will miss him, but we will never forget him and the services he rendered his church and his God, and we like to think of him as now raising his voice in the great celestial choir, singing praises to God before His throne.
