From Highlands

For the benefit of those who may desire further information, the Forestry Corps Veterans Home is a facility established to provide care and support to veterans who have served in the forestry service. It offers a range of services including medical care, housing, and recreation. The facility is located in the Highlands area and is open to veterans who meet specific eligibility criteria.

2-War Vet,
M. Campbell
Dies at 62

Veteran of both world wars, Murdoch Campbell, 62, of 128 Canning Avenue, died at home early today after a short illness.

Born and reared at St. John's, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, he served during World War I with the Royal Navy. Mr. Campbell came there in 1932 and was employed by the bridge and building department at the CPR.

At the conclusion of World War II he enlisted in the Forestry Corps and served overseas. He was never more than a semester away from his discharge.

Surviving are two brothers, William, of 136 North Sarah Street, and Angus of Stornoway; five sisters, Margaret (Mrs. William; Mervin; Mrs. John MacIver; Mrs. M. Smith; and Bella (Mrs. I.D. MacDonald), all of Stornoway; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The body is at the funeral home, pending arrangements for interment.
